

YELLOW JACKET
1972

The end of one swing —
The beginning of another . . .
The pendulum making
One arc,
Complete in itself;
Then pausing
And resuming its course
To remake, rework,
Relive . . .
Until all
Combines to make a whole —
A life.

History,
Revealed in progress.
Past,
Transferred to future.
Today becomes one world,
Pushing forward,
Advancing from yesterday,
Moving toward a goal,
Reaching an end,
Then returning to begin again.

Back and forth,
Back and forth,
In endless monotony.

Only those with great strength
Can break these iron bounds
Of strict regularity.

Only those true individuals
Can leave this foot-worn path
Of a silent existence,
And reach out with warmth
Beyond a world of self.

The time you're living often seems
the only time.

The people you're with often seem the only people.

The place you're in often seems
the only place.

But
it's just one small swing.
Just one.

Slowly,
Constantly moving,
The pendulum —
Within its boundaries,
Affects the clock,
Its reason for existence.

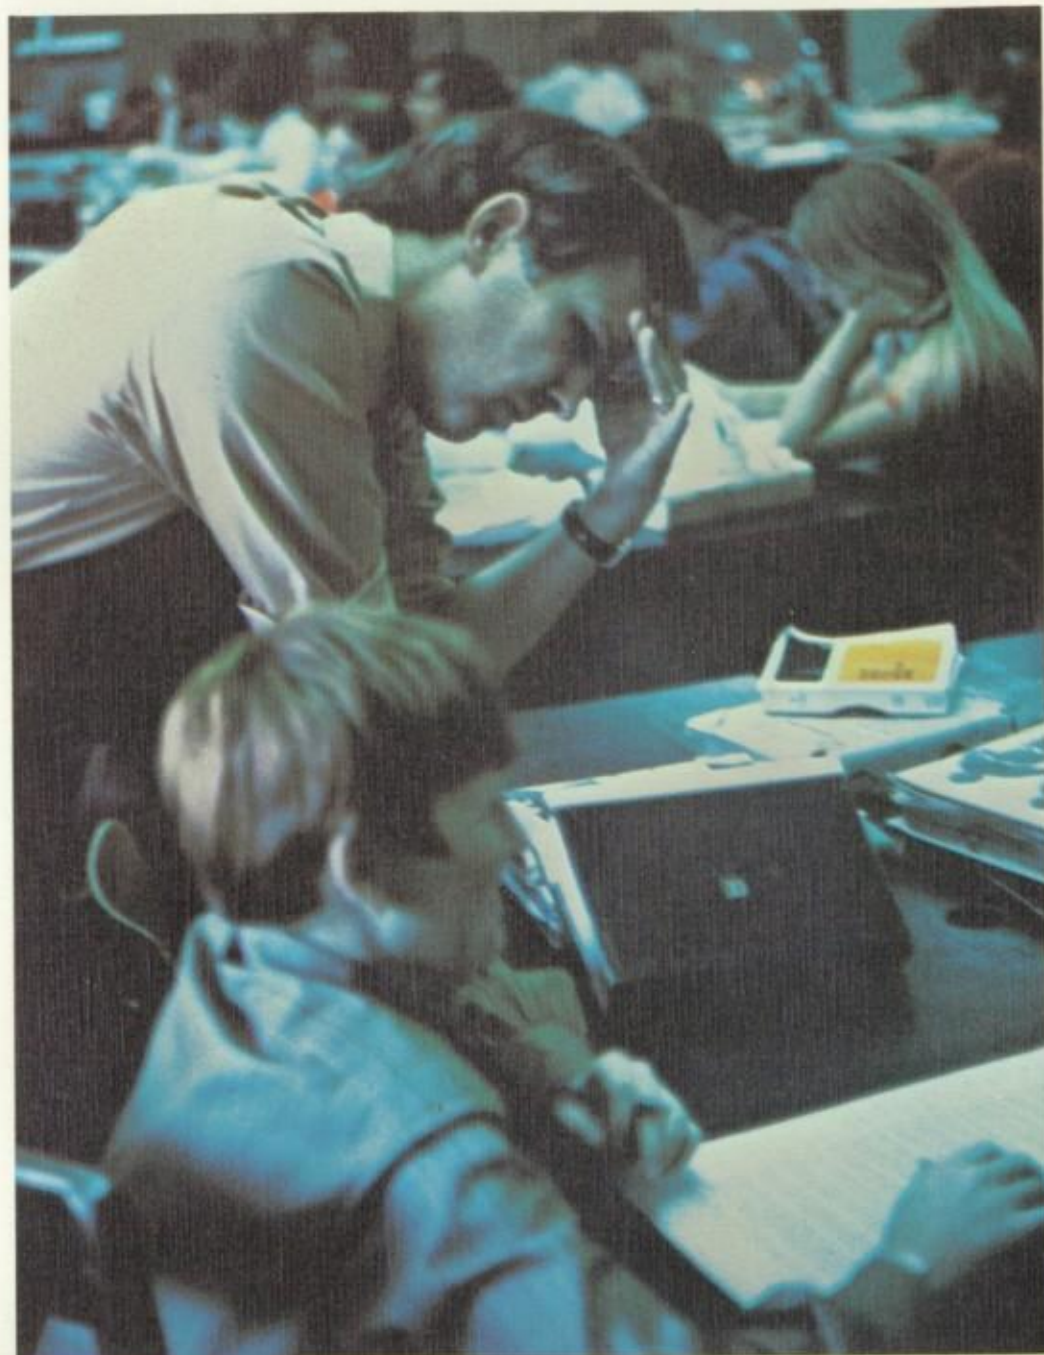

Rushing,
Tireless masses,
People —
Realizing their limitations,
Producing gradual change,
Are our hope for things to come.

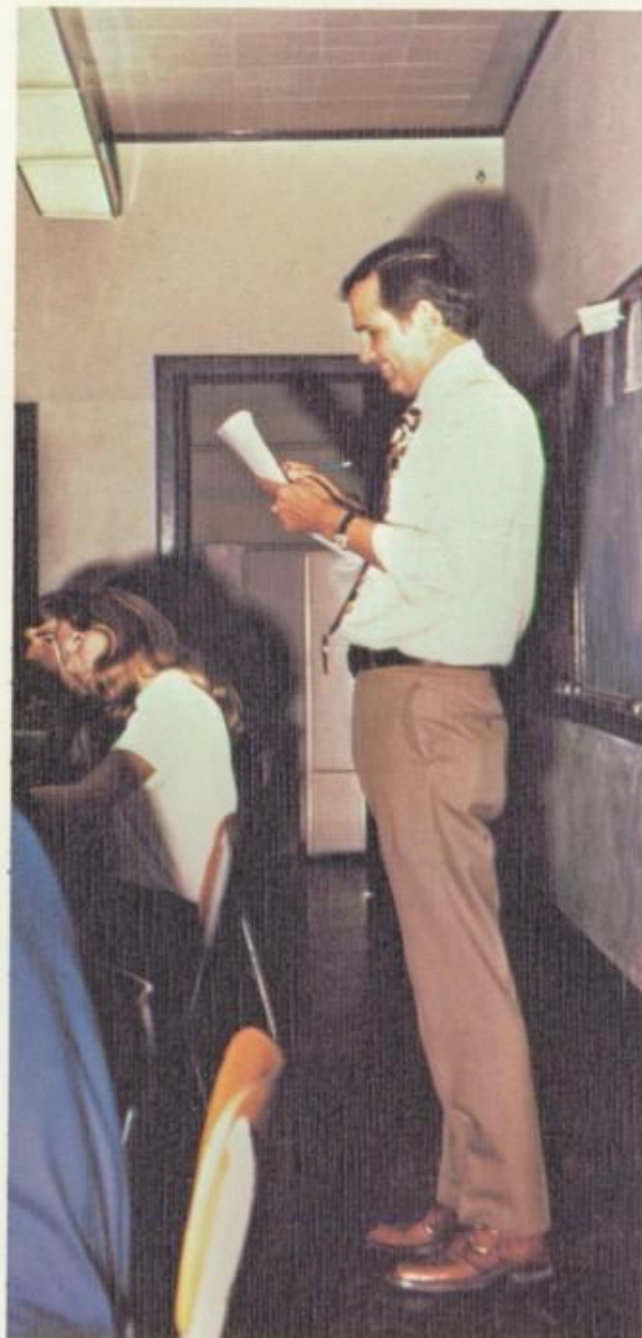

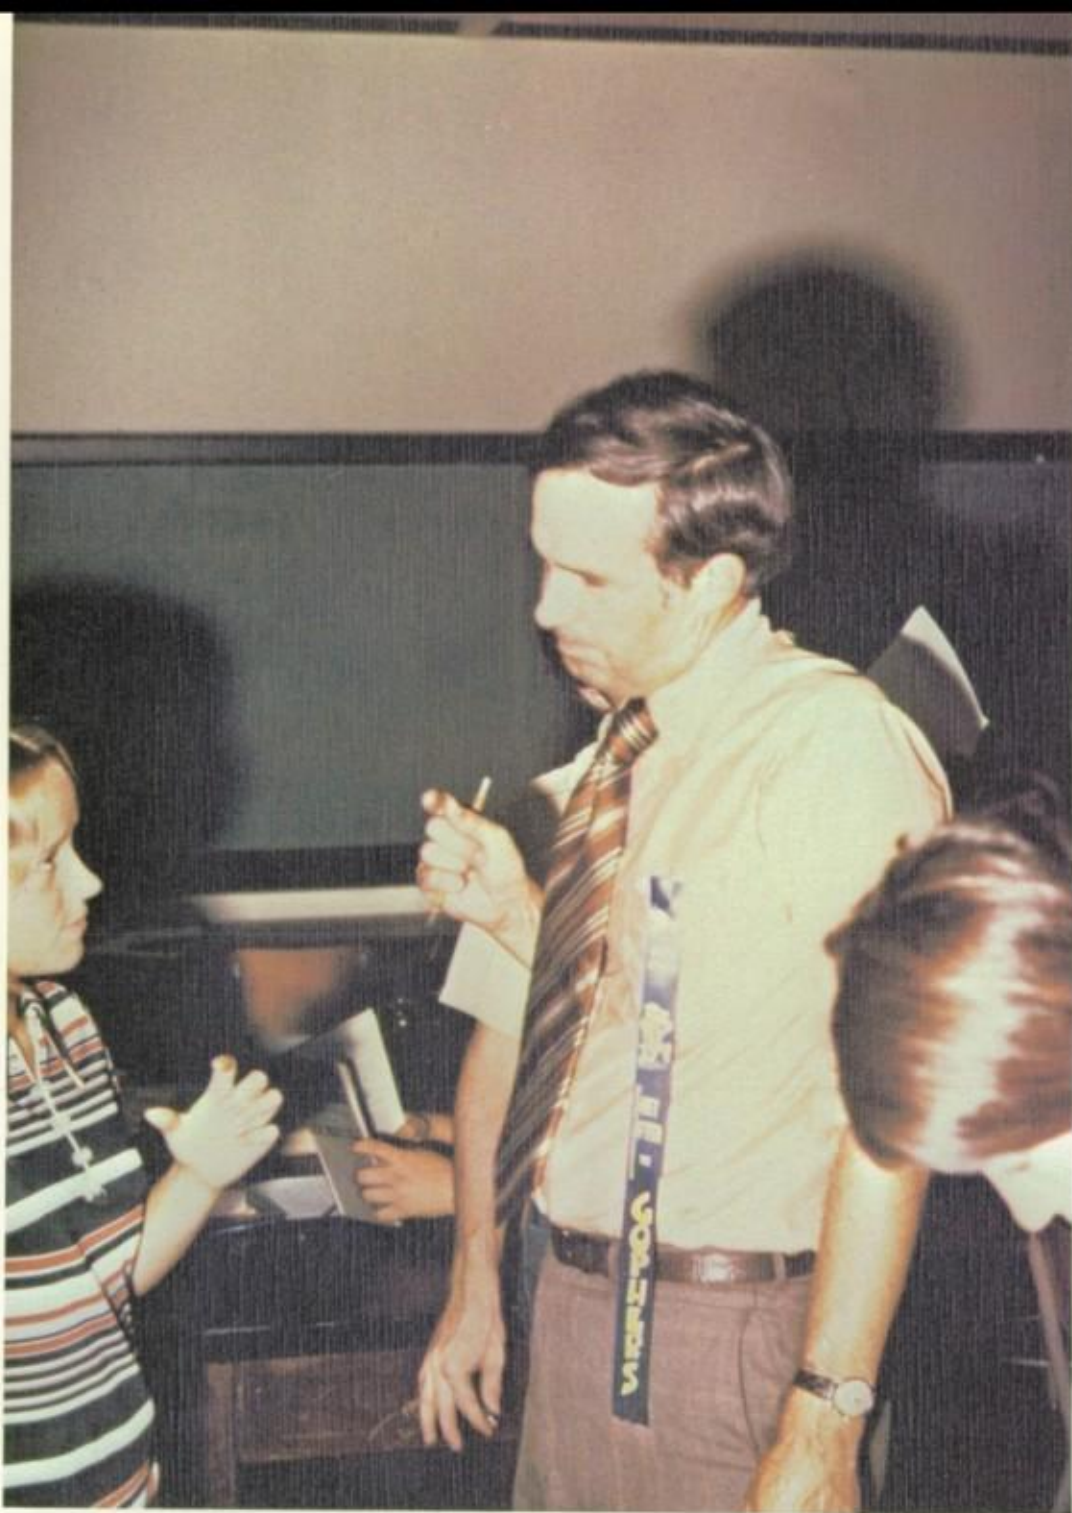

DEDICATION

Mr. Arch Van Meter

Genial smile,
Shy but ready laugh,
Real enthusiasm
For
His subject,
His students,
Enthusiasm
Mirrored
In both . . .
Transforming biology
From
Just another science
To something extraordinary,
Caring and understanding
Are standard
In this man's curriculum.
AY sponsor,
Safety Council sponsor —
Involvement . . .
His pendulum swings
Amid laughter
And concern.

STUDENT LIFE

For some,
the pendulum
creeps,
moving with aching slowness
through years
worthless and wasted.

But for others,
those who would really live,
the pendulum
sweeps
all too quickly
through years
fulfilled and accomplished.

Your years,
Your ambitions —
Only you
Determine
What goes in . . .
What comes out.

SPRING ACTIVITIES

Special Programs Mark End of Year

Along with the anticipation of summer came spring activities on the Hill. Spring Fever Week, sponsored by the Student council, included olympic games, a dance, and a chorus program "Which Way America?" in which both students and members of the faculty participated. W. C. Fields movies were shown in the cafeteria during all lunch periods. The hectic week climaxed with a barbecue on the football field and the presentation of the golden Coca-Cola awards, humorous recognition given to students and teachers.

After several false alarms, the annual staff introduced the 1971 edition of the Yellow Jacket and its dedicatee, Mrs. Glenna Edwards, and presented "The Wizard of AHHS" as the Annual Day program. Throughout the day students continued the tradition of yearbook signing.

The Jacket varsity baseball team rolled on long after school was dismissed. Having captured series from Wyatt and Dallas Hillcrest, it finally lost out to Lufkin in the second round of regionals.

Amid the rush of Annual Day, Holly Witt pauses to sign another yearbook.

Moonlighting from their regular duties, Coaches Merlin Priddy, Larry Wood, and Roland Maclin perform in the spring choral production.

Annual Day provides a break from the norm for Eva Geren to sign yearbooks.

"Na, na, na, na, . . . Na, na, na, na . . . Hey, hey, hey, we're number ONE!" proclaim the baseball players after winning the city championship.

'The Jackets Are Back' — With Spirit!

"Hump-a-dump-bump-bump" and several other new cheers mixed with traditional yells to help boost Jacket spirit of both teams and spectators.

Spirit was high all year as expressed by the many signs in the auditorium and on the fieldhouse. This was the first year the senior girls decorated the new fieldhouse, with the decorations committee assisting the cheerleaders in the auditorium before every game.

Homecoming found a record number of exes wandering nostalgically through the halls of Heights. Robyn Carter reigned over the night, with Marilyn Beasley and Kit Cope serving as her court.

Spirited homerooms rushed to get locker decorations up on time, and homeroom 313 won the plaque for their theme of "Raid the Rebels."

After a close and disappointing game with Southwest, who also had their homecoming that night, Jackets crowded to Round-up Inn to dance to the music of "Felix."

Overcome by joy, Robyn Carter shares her excitement with fellow students.

All smiles, Marilyn Beasley reigns in the Homecoming court.

Students Back Cagers 'All the Way'

In pre-district support, crowds followed the Yellow Jacket varsity basketball team to such faraway places as Waco and Pampa.

Meanwhile, back on the Hill, lockers were decorated for each game, cookies were baked for members of the team, and players' rooms were decorated. Much creativity and planning was revealed by the signs and posters in the gym.

Basketball queen Kit Cope represented Heights in the West Side Lions Beauty Contest and became one of four finalists.

With the help of returning roundballers Craig Cameron and David Krieger and the addition of Como lettermen Carl Webb and Robert Woods, the Jackets were led to a successful season. Despite the disqualification of Michael Drain after first half play, team spirit never lost momentum.

YOUNG LIFE

Club Aims at Religious Consideration

In an attempt to present high school students with the New Testament claims of Jesus Christ, Young Life Campaign held regular meetings at Westover Hills Town Hall.

The weekly gatherings hosted two to three hundred Heights students who got together for singing, laughing, skits, and a short Bible lesson. Throughout the year, ski trips, barbeques, and over night field trips were held. Heights students also attended YL summer camps.

The club was led by Mr. Dale Vollrath, a Dallas Theological Seminary graduate; help was provided by Gary Petry, UTA student; Brent Stenberg, Nancy West, and Barb Ferland, TCU students.

Young Life is an interdenominational non-profit Christian organization. It was founded in 1954 and now has branches throughout the U.S. and in four foreign countries.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

Involvement — Allied Youth in Action

Allied Youth kicked off the beginning of many activities with a dance during Howdy Week in September. Special assemblies in the auditorium and AY contests earned student support.

In October, a bike race was held. Mike Reed having the best time for the once-around-the-school course.

November was a busy month for AYers, as the first Ping-Pong Tournament was staged at Arlington Heights Methodist Church. The International Allied Youth Conference was held in Buckhill Falls, Pennsylvania. Those attending from AHHS were Mrs. Martha Austin, sponsor; Josh Baker, and Shannon Cox, juniors; Charles Holley, sophomore; and Jane Smith, senior.

AY sponsored the annual Mostest Contest on February 17. Taking top honors were Jan Birdwell, judged Most Beautiful; Teddy Gardeline, Most Handsome; Pat Copenhaver, Most Talented Girl; and Rusty Cutchin, Most Talented Boy.

Mr. Arch Van Meter joins in by taking bike race registrations.

HOWDY WEEK

All Classes Included in Royalty Election

To familiarize first year students with Heights' clubs and organizations, Howdy Week included activities for everyone.

A special Howdy Week program, The Ding-a-Ling Brothers Barnum and Bacon Circus, boasted a gorilla, elephants, ballerinas, and acrobats, with Elbert Kennedy as ringmaster. Clubs made up skits to acquaint new students with their functions.

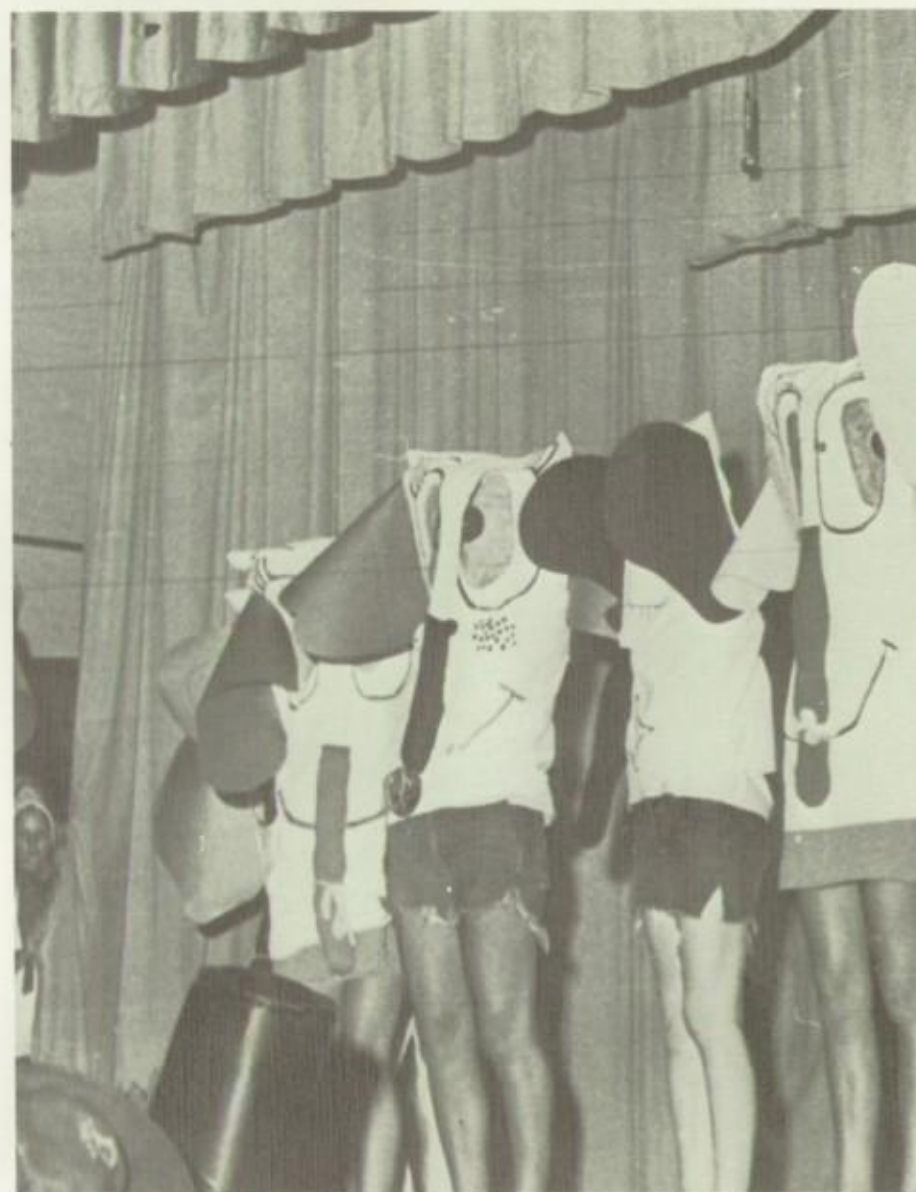

Elected by students of each class, the 1971 Howdy Kings and Queens were presented at a pep rally which climaxed the week. The royalty included Debby Morris and Carlos Bethencourt, seniors; Patty Furey and Bronson Stocker, juniors; Donise Wilson and Juan Becera, sophomores; and Kaydee Brown and Stuart Montague, freshmen.

CHRISTMAS

Yuletide Message Voiced by Many

Christmas week at Heights was celebrated by a Christmas gathering on Thursday evening, December 16. A skit was performed by Alan Friedman, Tav Holmes, Tera Mansker, Billy McKenzie, George Montague, and Beckie Ray, seniors; and Brenna Barber and Rita Green, juniors. Music was supplied by the group "Status Back Baby," Bob Heaberg, and Randy Stegall. Free hot chocolate was served afterward.

At the end of the week, the Student Council held its usual festive activities, with Santa Claus and his elves delivering surprise Christmas cards and toys to many students and teachers.

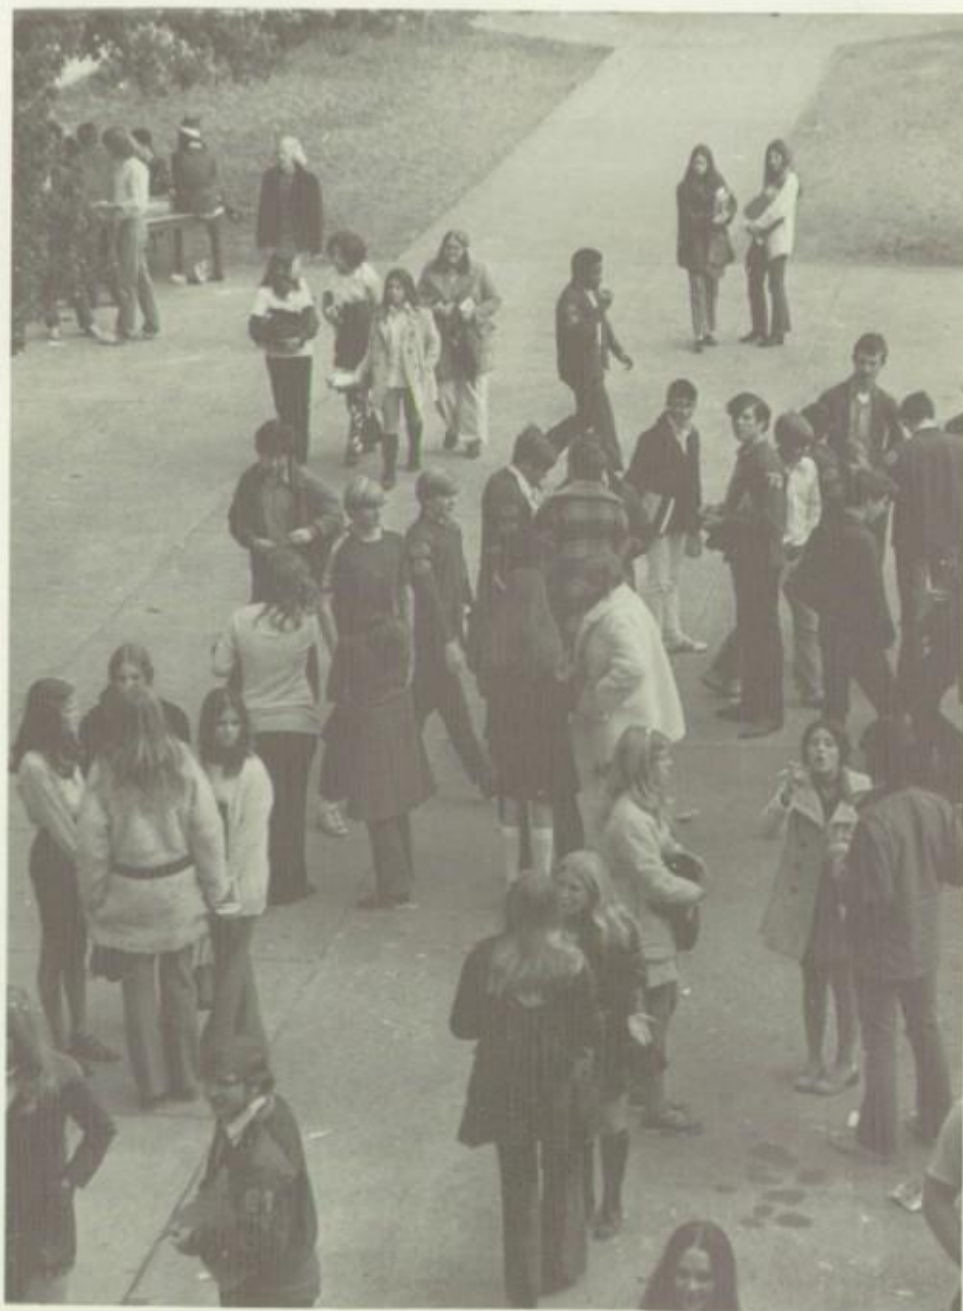

Candy canes, fudge, and brownies were sold at tables set up on the first and second floors and on the patio, and the traditional tree was placed in the main hall.

Elves, David Jones, John Berry, and Alan Friedman sing Christmas greetings.

"Th-Th-Th-That's all folks!" sputters George Montague.

True Christmas spirit is shown through fellowship by Heightsters.

Traditional Ranch Day Rides Again

Heights' first beard-growing contest climaxed on January 28, Ranch Day 1972. Karl Leche won the Competition for the longest beard, and Lee Pendleton was given the award for the fullest. Both winners received Old Spice shaving mugs as prizes. Contestants were allowed two weeks to grow their beards and were required to have them shaved off by the school day following the contest.

Old-fashioned and modern clothing was worn on Ranch Day in accordance with the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show and Rodeo. After an election by the student body, Kathy Cash and Ronnie Ehrle, seniors, were chosen Ranch Queen and Foreman.

VALENTINE'S DAY

'Cupid's Arrows' Find Many Unaware

"Cupid's Messengers" delivered Valentine telegrams to unsuspecting recipients February 14. Girl representatives from the Student Council wore "love-ly" costumes adorned with red and white hearts, ruffles, and lace. Secret admirers and friends paid a quarter and composed opened or closed telegrams for delivery.

Heights' first "Cupid Shoot" was sponsored by the ROTC and the chorus. The winners were Mr. Flavin Arseneau, male teacher; Mrs. Dorothy Scott, female teacher; Frankie Misso, girl student; Daniel Webster, boy student; and Guy McDaniel, ROTC boy.

Ann Hobbs, D'Ann O'Malley, and Peggy Pumphrey pose as Cupid's Messengers during the Valentine's Day festivities, bringing the message of love.

STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

Council Sponsors Array of Projects

An all-out effort to save and purchase trees for the Trinity River development project was made by area junior and senior high schools.

During this fall contest, the schools competed for cash prizes by collecting newspapers and magazines for a weekly "weighing in" at Farrington Field. Weighing and bundling committees at Heights were composed of Student Council representatives, and competition between homerooms was begun.

Dances at Homecoming and before Valentine's Day were also sponsored by the Student Council. These were held at Round-up Inn and Colonial Country Club, with entertainment provided by "Felix" and "Shelter."

Larry Fuller and Dave Ratliff contribute to the city-wide paper drive conducted this fall.

Anne Szablowski, David Stocker, and Lisa Campbell enjoy themselves at the SC Valentine's dance.

ATHLETICS

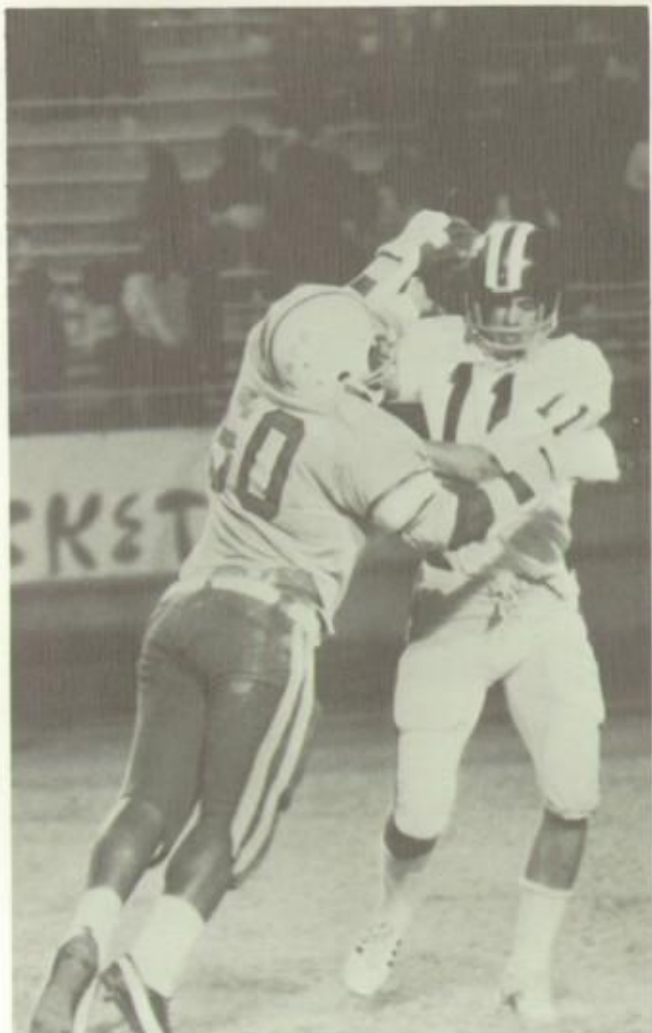

Victory . . . Defeat
Who can say which way this
Pendulum will swing?

Straining, sweating,
All striving to force the orb
toward victory,
In its inevitable sweep.

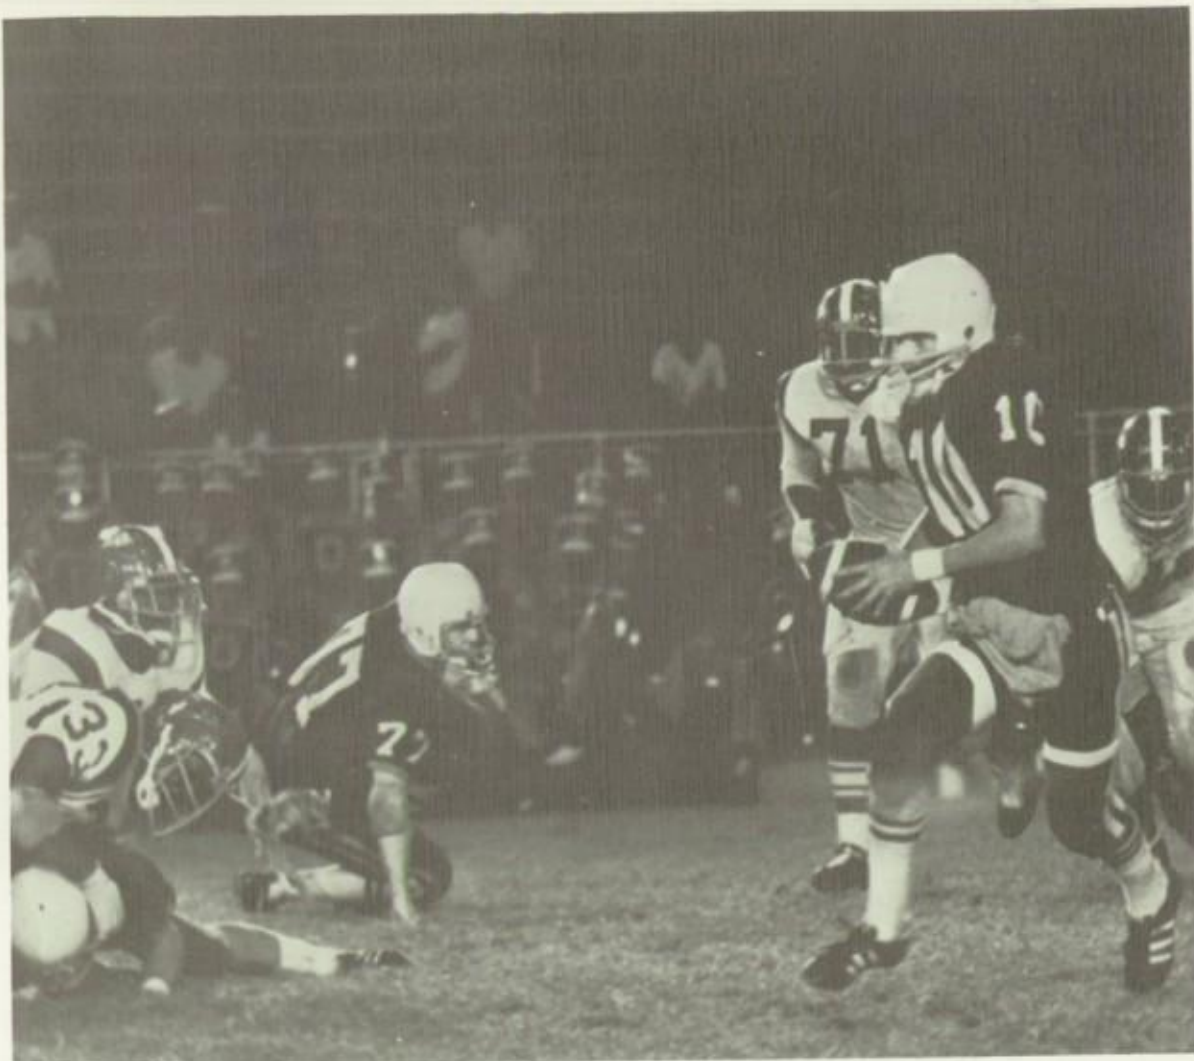

Then,
It sways,
With ruthless clarity to
one end,
Taking with it,
For some,
The hope of a year —
For others,
Bringing joyous exultation.

Summer Training Works Toward Unity

Unifying a group of individual athletes into a team was stressed as the 1971 Yellow Jackets entered their grueling two-a-day sessions August 23. Featuring many new faces, the Jacket squad spent long exhausting hours learning numerous basic fundamentals while undergoing a strenuous conditioning program. This plus the everpresent drive to achieve the winning season which had eluded Heights in the past two years carried the Jackets into their rugged 10-game schedule.

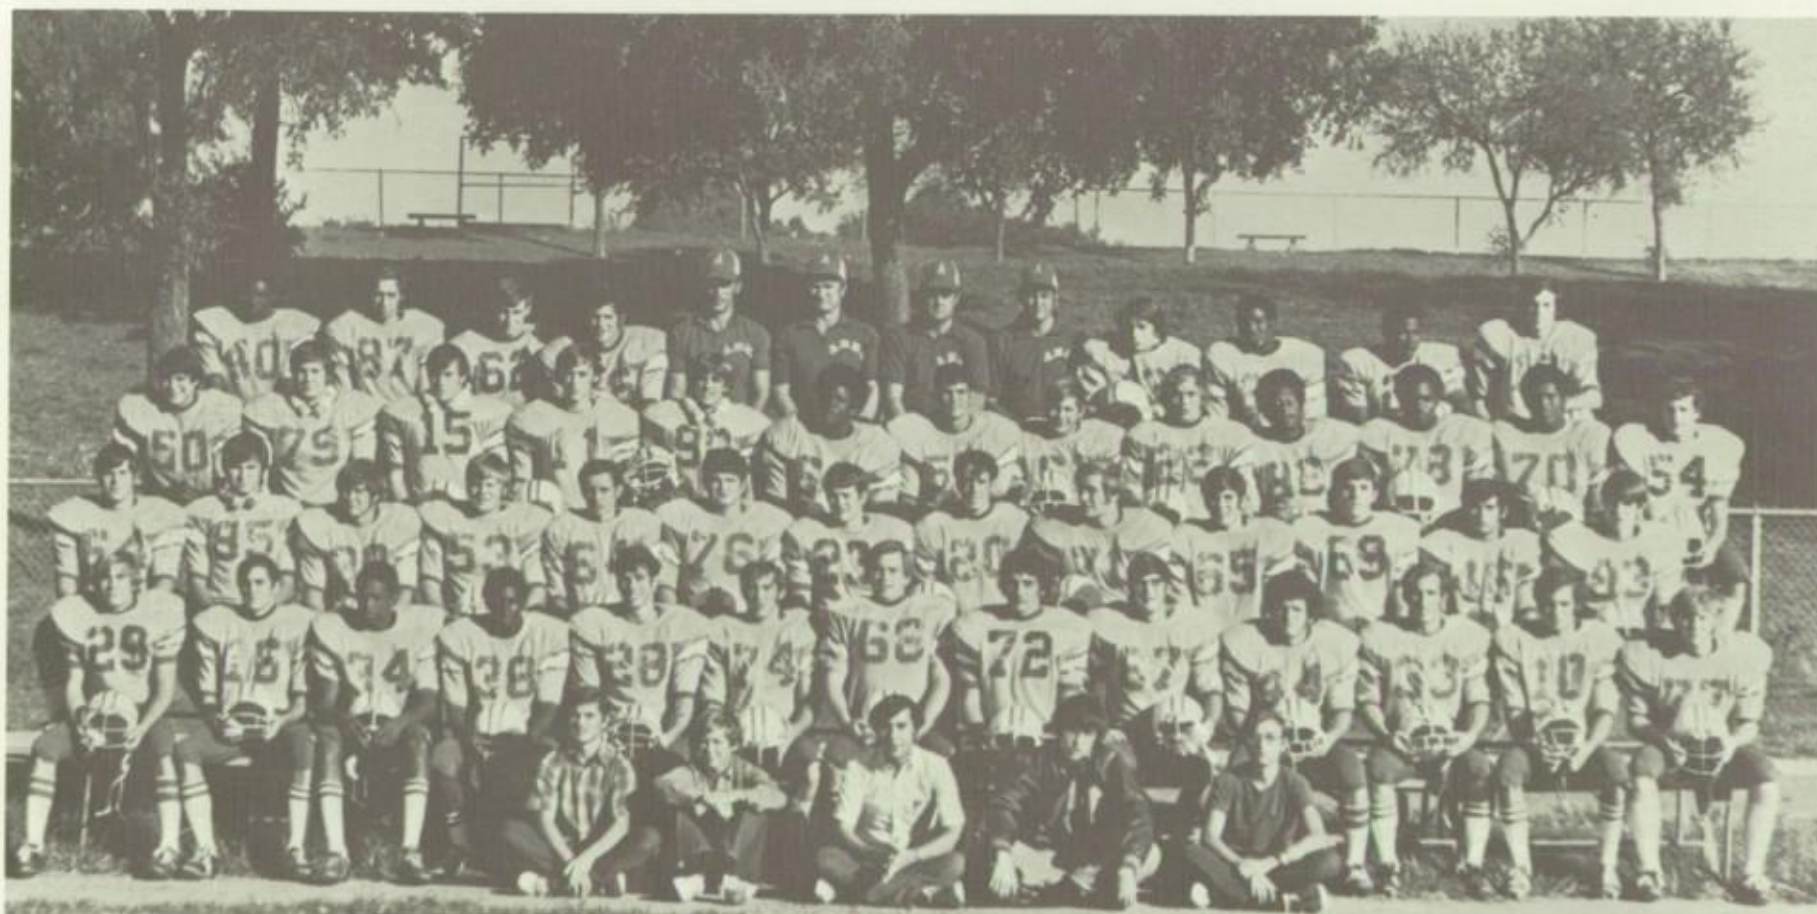

The Jackets based this year's efforts on the experience of senior lettermen: Tim Burton, Dave Buckalew, Tommy Fulkerson, Dusty Griffith, Buster Hawthorne, Eric Horn, Mike Morris, Steve Moore, Barry Phillips, Brad Pittman, Bryan Ratliff, Milton Robinson, Bob Staples and Bubba Voigt. Griffith, Hawthorne and Moore were elected as the squad's tri-captains.

A new face also donned a coaching cap, as line coach Steve Chevreux joined the staff of backfield coach Roland Maclin, receiver coach Larry Wood and head coach Merlin Priddy.

Working closely with the coaching staff were the senior managers, equipment man David Bailey, statistician Elbert Kennedy and trainer Randy Mulry. These three undertook the tiresome tasks of team maintenance, publicity and first aid.

Jackets Drop One in Preseason Action

The Yellow Jackets opened the 1971 season September 10, visiting 7-AAAA powerhouse Grand Prairie. The Gophers, who had escaped the Jackets' wrath in five previous meetings, were victimized by an aroused Jacket squad, as Willie Thomas knocked the ball from the Gophers' hands on the season's first play and Bob Spencer claimed it at the Gopher 33. Mark Julian scored from three yards out to cap the drive, and Bobby Smith kicked the point after for a 7-0 Jacket lead. Fullback Dusty Griffith, who rambled for 151 yards on 12 carries, scored in the second quarter, and Smith booted a 35-yard field goal to set the final count at 17-13, Heights.

In their second preseason game, the inspired Jackets were once again surprised by a tough San Angelo team, as the Bobcats took a first-quarter lead which they never relinquished. Heights' only scoring play was a six-yard pass from quarterback Bob Spencer to split end Brad Pittman. Bobby Smith booted the point, but it was not enough as the final score found the Bobcats ahead 29-7.

Wyatt's pesky Chaparrals were the next to challenge Heights, forcing seven AH fumbles through three scoreless quarters in the September 24 match. The frustrated Jackets finally put seven points on the board as Rick Ewing scored on a six-yard sweep with ten minutes remaining and Bobby Smith kicked the point after for a 7-0 win.

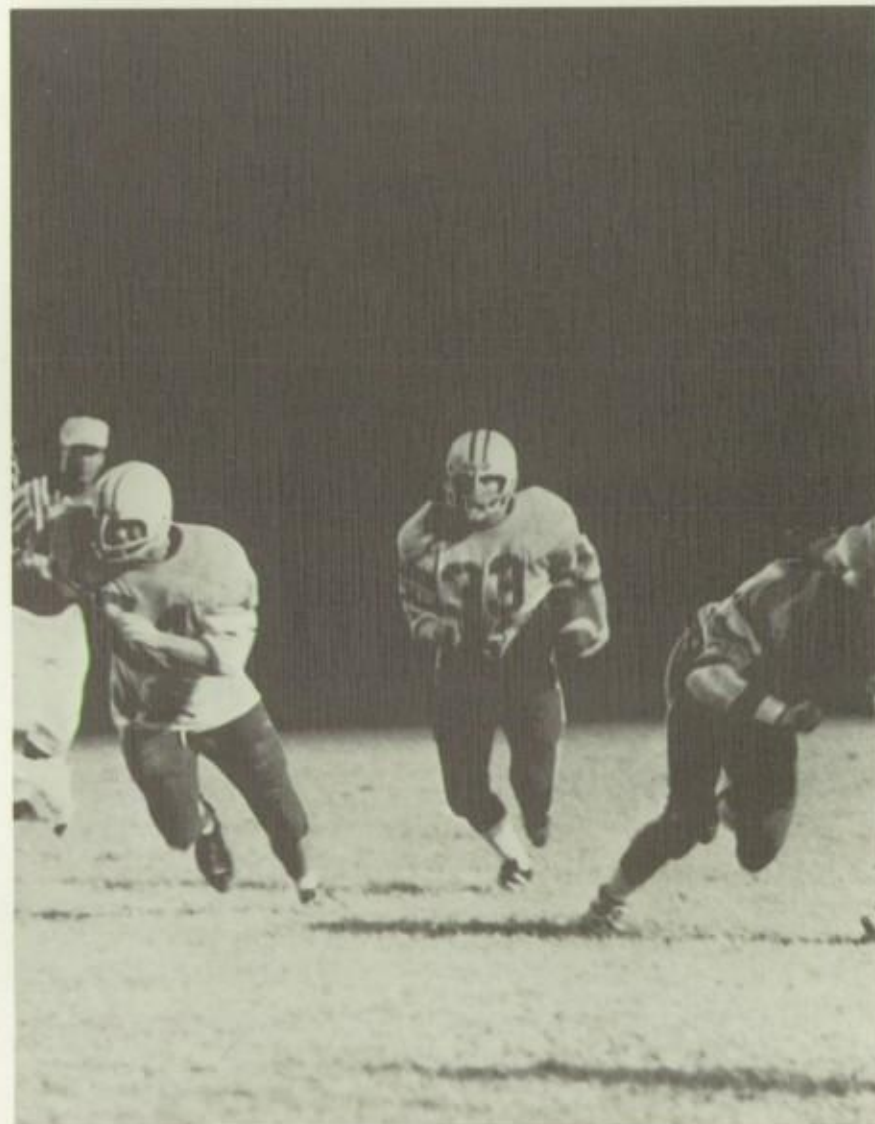

On October 2 the determined Jackets met Dunbar's Wildcats at Farrington Field. Heights opened the scoring on Bob Spencer's one-yard plunge. The Wildcats then rebounded to go ahead 7-6, but Mack Mercer's 23-yard scoring run put the Jackets securely in the lead. Rick Ewing's 24-yard dash and a two-yard effort by Dave Buckalew rounded out scoring as the final whistle saw Heights on top 28-13.

Moving was the main order of the next week as the Jackets opened their new fieldhouse with a hard-fought 12-7 win over Eastern Hills October 9. Barry Phillips' 12-yard touchdown catch from quarterback Bob Spencer gave the Jackets a momentary lead, but it took a 27-yard rollout by Spencer with four minutes to play to finish off the scrappy Highlanders, ending housewarming on a happy note.

Jackets Settle for Second in District

The Jackets opened district play and celebrated homecoming with an October 15 date against the Southwest Rebels at Clark Stadium. Fighting hard, halftime saw the score knotted 10-10, but the Rebels pushed across a third-quarter score to break the tie and capture the battle 17-10. Dusty Griffith plunged for three yards and Bobby Smith booted a 32-yard field goal to account for Jacket scoring.

Heights' defense proved the key to victory in their next outing against Carter-Riverside October 21. The defense, which yielded only four first downs to the Eagles, consistently kept the offense in good scoring position. Quarterback Bob Spencer sparked the offense with two TD passes of 15 yards to Reggie Rader and 29 yards to Mack Mercer as the Jackets blanked the Eagles 12-0.

On October 29 the Jackets returned to Farrington Field to face their west side rivals, the Cougars of Western Hills. The Jackets played inspired ball, taking control early in the game with Mark Julian's runs of nine and 31 yards for paydirt. Bobby Smith's extra point tries were good and the Jackets led 14-0 as the first quarter ended. Western Hills' offensive efforts for the night proved futile against a staunch Jacket defense which limited the Cougars to nine first downs and 98 yards total offense. The Jacket offense, however, kept rolling as later runs by Mack Mercer and Rick Ewing accounted for additional scores, leaving the Cougars caged 28-0.

Heights next faced North Side in a battle for the top spot in district November 6 at Clark Stadium. The Jackets, suffering many setbacks, were unable to convert on Steer mistakes as the North Side offense proved unstoppable. The Jacket offense managed to break Mark Julian for a 61-yard score, but the effort proved fruitless as the Steers went on to win 20-7.

Winding up a winning season, the Jackets were matched against the Panthers of Paschal on November 13 at Clark Stadium. The traditional rivalry between the two teams was once again felt when the game began, although the Panthers proved no match as Heights dominated the game. A 23-yard pass from Bob Spencer to Lawrence Hill opened scoring late in the first quarter. Tom Mercer's fumble recovery on the ensuing kickoff set up the Jackets on the 48, and ten plays later a 10-yard pass from Spencer to Mack Mercer put Heights in front 14-0. The Panthers managed to score before the half, but early in the third quarter Mark Julian picked off a stray pass and returned it to the Paschal 2. From there Rick Ewing scored, putting the Jackets securely in the lead. Mack Mercer's one-yard shot raised the total to the final 27-6.

Placing five men on local 10-AAAA all-district teams, the Jackets posted a 7-3 record, their best in three years, and finished in a three-way tie for second place. Linemen Tim Burton and Bob Staples with leading rusher Mark Julian were chosen to the honor squads of the Fort Worth Press and Star-Telegram, with Julian a two-way choice. Tackle Buster Hawthorne was also named to the Press team, while linebacker and kicking specialist Brad Pittman made the Star-Telegram's top 22. Buster Hawthorne, Lawrence Hill, Steve Moore and John Wayland were Star-Telegram second-team choices.

Jacket halfback Mack Mercer sets to receive Paschal's Pete Pomo.

Evidence of the year's efforts is reflected in the score of the final game.

Jacket JV Features Balanced Attack

Roaring through their nine-game schedule with an 8-1 record, the Jacket junior varsity dazzled opponents with a balanced offensive attack. Under the guidance of coaches Joe Galiga and Jim Wall, the JV averaged 33 points per game en route to victories over every team except district champion Southwest.

Directed by sophomore quarterback Matt Herring, the offense featured running backs Juan Becera and Keith Miller and the clutch receiving of split end Mike Renfro. Providing solid blocking and pass protection were linemen Roger Barker, Dan Griffey, David Look, Greg Newman and Vincent Roach.

Defensively, a rigid linebacking unit of Bill Clemons, Keith Miller, Melvin Russell and Steve Waters helped keep opponents bottled in their own end of the field, while safetyman Renfro led the team in interceptions. Linemen Barker, Griffey, Newman and Jeff Pumphrey held opposing rushers in check.

Trainers Pat Frederickson and Kelly Mascher applied first aid, while managers Ken Martin and Mitch Stallings handled equipment maintenance.

Freshmen Take Third Straight Crown

Following the tradition set by two previous Jacket squads, the 1971 Heights ninth graders rolled to the district and city championships, posting a spotless 10-0 record. Nicknamed the "Baby Jackets" by coaches Henry Harvey and Dillard Isabel, the team piled up 337 points to their foes' 74, including a 67-0 whipping of Western Hills, which was the biggest victory ever by a Heights football team.

Running backs Ricky Simms and Tony Franklin and quarterback Billy Scheihing each averaged better than ten yards per carry as linemen Jeb Batts, Henry Harvey and Robert Oglesby led them through opposing defenses.

Defensively, linebackers Mike Batts and Harvey, halfback Kelly Buster and tackles Batts and Dave Richardson limited opponents to 7 points per game. Aiding team maintenance by keeping equipment in order and training the athletes in injury prevention were managers Randy Ehrle and Mike Fowler.

BASKETBALL

Optimist Classic Tops Preseason Play

Despite only two returning lettermen, the Jackets' 1972 basketball future looked bright with the addition of two starters off Como's 1971 state runner-up squad.

Coach Johnny Dickerson, 1971 coach of the year, used a rigorous 19-game pre-season to shape Jacket roundballers for district play. The preseason was highlighted by a win in the West Side Lions tourney, a second in the Arlington Classic, and a third in the Breakfast Optimist Tournament to give the cagers a 12-7 won-lost record. Included was a 73-66 win over state champ Roosevelt.

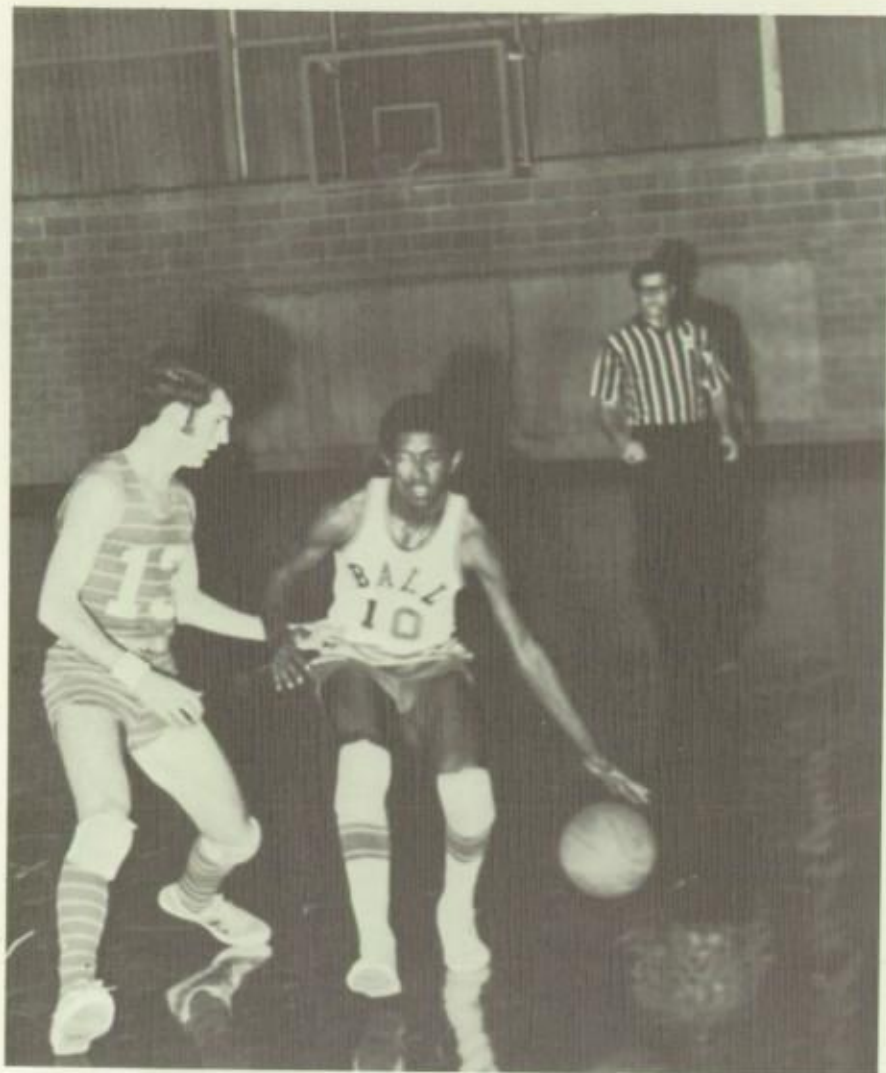

Managers Mike Crager and Jon Wise maintained Jacket equipment, while Bud Kennedy handled publicity and trainer Pat Frederickson took care of team medical problems.

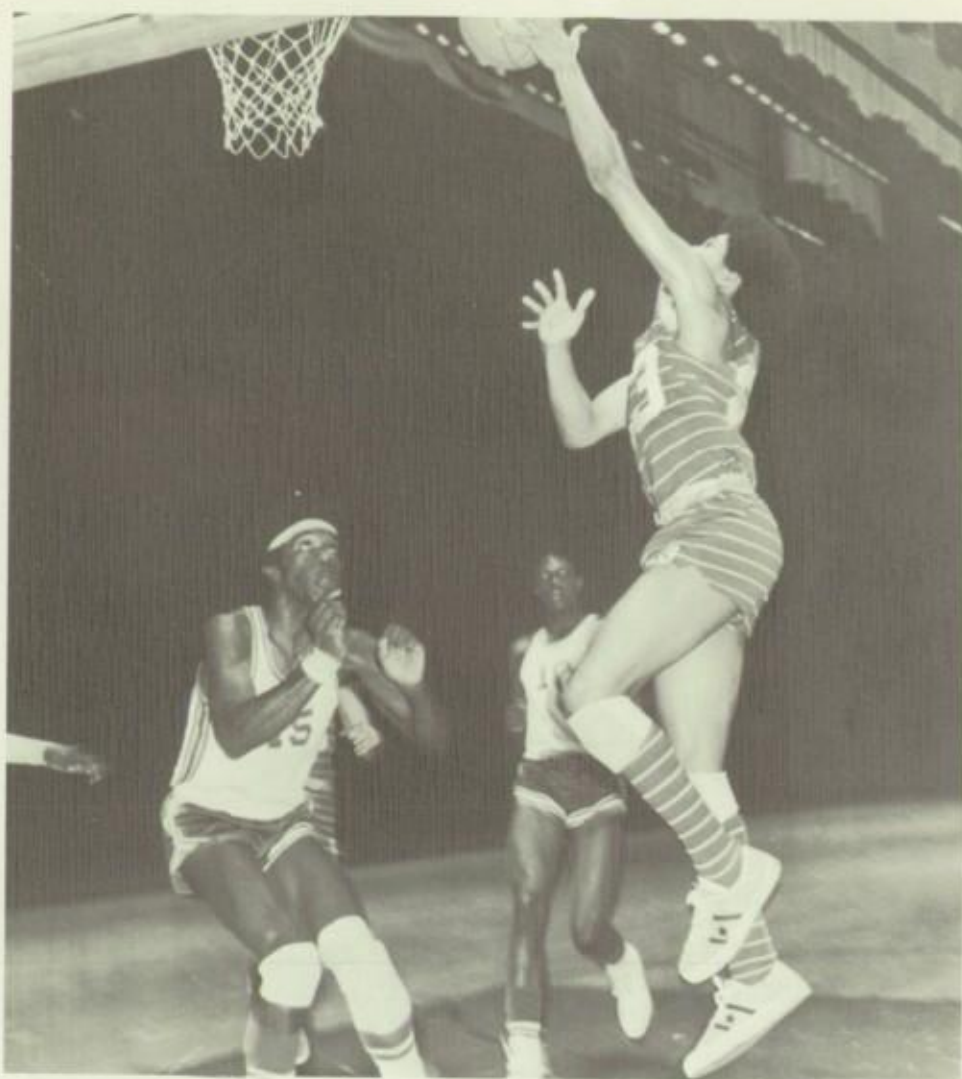

Guard Carl Webb controls the rebound as the Jackets battle top-ranked Houston Wheatley.

BASKETBALL

Heights Wins, Loses First Half Crown

Finishing preseason with a winning record, the Yellow Jackets opened defense of their district crown against Carter-Riverside. The Eagles' ball-hawking guards forced the Jackets into numerous turnovers, but Heights managed a 41-30 halftime lead. The shooting of guard Carl Webb, who scored 21 points, opened up the game in the second half as Heights outscored Carter to take an 84-48 victory.

The next Jacket district outing matched the cagers against North Side January 14. The Steers came out fighting, as the first half ended with AH on top 33-28, but early in the third quarter the Steers found themselves in foul trouble and Heights stretched their lead to the final score of 70-51. Carl Webb led with 19 points and David Krieger added 18.

Running their district record to 3-0, the Jackets soared to a 37-8 second quarter lead and thoroughly embarrassed the Western Hills Cougars 73-50. Led by Webb's 30 points and Michael Drains' 16, the Jackets kept their record against the Cougars spotless as Krieger and Robert Woods cleaned the boards.

The Jackets next defended their district lead against former Heights coach Jim Wall and the familiar Paschal stall. Countering with a ferocious press, Heights broke the game open in the third quarter, outscoring the Panthers 24-16. Once again, Carl Webb led the scoring with 27 points as the Jackets kept the heat on, winning 75-60.

With two starters on the bench, guard Michael Drain stepped up and took control as the Jacket cagers dueled the Southwest Rebels January 29. Drain found the hole for 27 points as the Jackets pressed frantically to make up at 13-point halftime deficit. However, the Rebels proved too strong for the undermanned Jackets, as they came out on top 74-67 and forced a deciding playoff game for the first half crown.

The lead changed hands ten times in the first three quarters as the Rebs and Jackets fought tooth-and-toenail in the February 1 playoff match. As the fourth quarter opened, Southwest settled snugly into a four-point lead, and with seven minutes to play, AH applied the deadly zone press. Webb's free throws and three-point plays by Drain and Krieger ignited the Jackets, who hit 14 straight points and salted away a 74-69 win and the first-half crown.

Two mornings later, however, a telephone call from Austin snatched the crown away, as Drain was declared ineligible on a minor technicality in the Interscholastic League's senior transfer rule. Drain's father was transferred to Vietnam January 5, and since then Drain had been living with friends, a violation of the rule. As a result, the district executive committee assigned Heights the minimum penalty — forfeiture of all first half games and the title.

Darnell Johnson, junior guard, puts the press on the Rebels' Randy Crawford.

BASKETBALL

Cager Express Derailed by Southwest

Recovering from the shock, the Jackets took out their frustration on Carter's Eagles, rolling to a 34-15 halftime lead and coasting to a 74-44 victory.

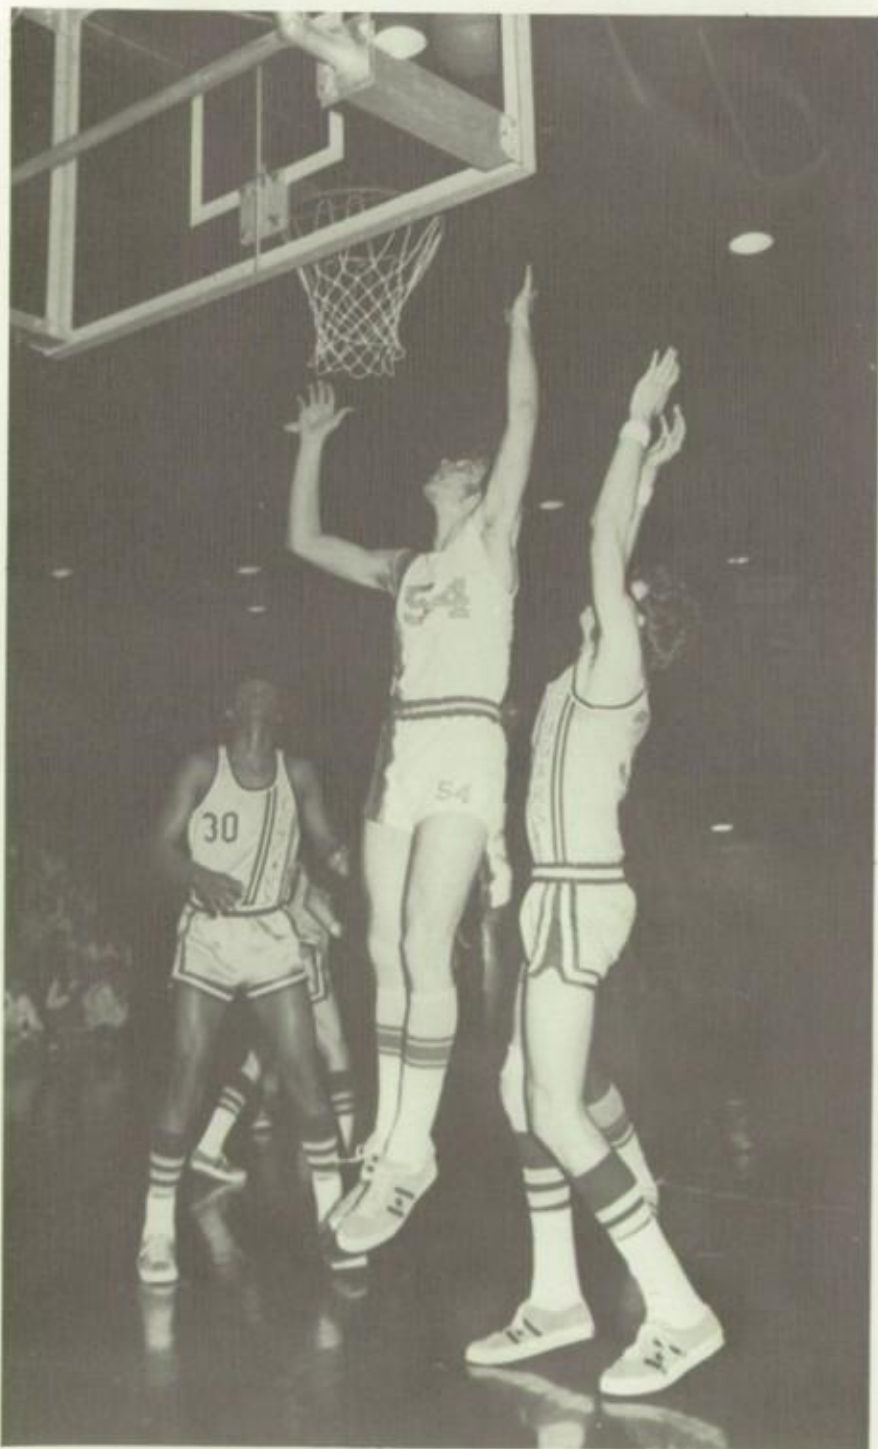

North Side's Steers, with their spirit and hopes high, took to the court February 8 to face the Jacket five. In a tight battle, Darnell Johnson — who scored 22 points for the night — hit two clutch free throws with 22 seconds to play and then scored a layup at the buzzer to cinch a 78-74 win.

Overcoming an early cold spell, the Jackets erased a 21-13 Cougar lead with a twenty point scoring spree as Western Hills challenged Heights February 11. Webb's 27 points sparked the victory as the Jackets posted a 3-0 second half mark with a 79-58 decision.

Paschal's stall frustrated the Jackets in their Valentine's Day match, as Heights failed to score until sophomore David Kinnaird ripped the cords with one minute of play in the first quarter. Heights' zone press again cracked the stall, as AH outscored the Panthers 18-7 in the second quarter en route to a 56-44 win. Krieger led with 15 points, and Webb added 13, as the Jackets again defeated former coach Jim Wall.

Hoping to sew up the second half title Heights faced the pesky Southwest Rebels again February 18. Catching fire early, the Jackets jumped to a 13-point lead, but a frigid second half enabled the Rebels to tie the match 39-39, throwing the second half title into a single three-minute overtime. In overtime, the Jackets failed to put it all together, and Southwest took a 42-40 win, sending the district race into total confusion.

BASKETBALL

Coin Flip Costs Jackets District Title

With the second half crown at stake and an old score to settle, the Jacket cagers took to the floor February 24 against Southwest. Seeking to avenge an earlier 42-40 loss to the Rebels, the Jacket revenge proved too great for the thoroughly outclassed Rebs as Heights' zone press forced countless Southwest turnovers. Webb led the Jacket scoring barrage with 31 points, while Woods scored 19 and Krieger added 18 as the Jackets rolled to a convincing 84-58 win.

Coming off the victory, the Jackets turned their thoughts toward the upcoming bi-district clash; again, however, the cagers were cut short. A lack of foresight left no time available for a playoff between second half champ Heights and Southwest, and the district executive committee chose to decide the playoff representative by the flip of a coin. This proved the fatal blow for the Jackets, as the quarter fell to the carpet tail side up. The season ended for a team which won the first half, lost it on a technicality, fought back to win the second half and still had no place to go.

On the court, Heights took the district title; in the office, Southwest ranked with them as co-champs, and the Rebs advanced to the playoffs — by the flip of a coin.

When all-district choices were announced in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Press, Webb was recognized as 10-AAAA's player of the year, and teammate David Krieger joined him on the first team. Craig Cameron was selected to the second team by vote of the district's coaches, and Roberts Woods received honorable mention.

JV Comes to Life Under New Coach

After a mediocre 11-8 preseason, coach Rod Byrd took the controls of the 1972 Jacket junior varsity, steering the squad to a 7-3 district mark and a third-place finish in the district race.

Among top players were leading scorer Pat Kelley, who averaged 18 points per game, and top rebounder Charles Lusk, who snatched 12 rebounds per game. Among other regulars were Brad Conrad, Derek Ellis, David Kinnaird and John Truelson. Managers John Sharp, Jr. and Wayne Tomlinson maintained equipment.

Going high to snare a rebound, John Truelson gets in on Jacket action.

Freshmen Battle Poly for City Title

After a strenuous preseason highlighted by a second-place finish in the Southeast Lions Tourney, the 1972 Jacket freshmen posted a season record of 13 wins and 7 losses, taking the 10-AAAA title and losing to Poly for the city crown.

Under the direction of coach Steve Chevreux, the squad was led by Robert Oglesby, who paced the team in points and rebounds, plus guard Cardale Tippens, who averaged 15 points per game. Rounding out the starting five were Mike Batts, Larry Bonner, and Billy Scheihing, who each also averaged in double figures. Seeing spot action were Brad Hickman, Andy Orr and Sidney Smith.

SWIMMING

Diver, Sprinters Pace Girls to State

A new coach and a freshman diver gave a new look to the Jacket girls' swim team, as the girl tankers splashed to a fourth-place finish under the coaching of Billie Tillman.

Diver Cindy Riddell and swimmers Cindy Bradley and Carol Jackson led the squad to the state ranking, as Riddell placed second in diving, team captain Bradley took fourth in the 100 backstroke, and Jackson took third in the 100 breaststroke and fourth in the 200 individual medley.

Beginning preseason meets September 23, the squad rolled to a 7-1 preseason record and finished second to Paschal in the city meet November 20. Bradley cracked one city record with a time of 2:12.2 in the 200 freestyle, and tied her own city mark with a 1:10.3 in the 100 backstroke. Riddell swept diving competition, totaling 416.30 points, and also contributed a fourth in the 100 butterfly. Junior Allison Kerr and senior Theresa Mahurin each added second and third places to the Jacket cause, with Susan Malone also placing high in the meet.

Tankers Captive Overall Team Title

The Jacket boys' swim team also was directed by a new coach, as teacher Dave Maggard took the helm and coached the team to their second straight city championship.

With team captain Mike Tinius and All-American qualifier Mike Epperson each taking first places, the Jacket tankers surged past Paschal to capture the boys' and overall titles in the city finals February 19. The 200 medley relay team of Epperson, Tinius, Rick Burr, and Kevin McCambell opened the meet by cutting five seconds off the old city record. Boys' points were added to the girls' points for a total of 150, giving Heights the overall title. Blake Bourland added a second place in diving, and Walter Halpenny and Joe Ward earned third place finishes. Epperson later captured the state title in the 100 breast-stroke.

Returning Lettermen Strengthen Team

Strengthened by eight returning lettermen from a 1971 city runner-up squad, the 1972 tennis team prepared for district play with daily practices, weekly matches, and participation in tournaments in Garland, Irving, and Tyler.

Led by veteran coach, Mrs. Martha Austin, district competitors were Pete Rutledge in boys' "A" singles, Joe Rankin and Shannon Cox in boys' "A" doubles, David Pruden in "B" singles and Josh Baker and Guy Roberts in "B" doubles.

Representing the girls in district play were Janet Ward in "A" singles and Nelia McMillan in "B" singles. In team play, Marilyn Ward and Christie Driskell combined in "A" doubles while Shannon McDonald and Shelley Nowlin played "B" doubles. Lynne Brew, Allison Kerr, and Mark Shields filled in when injuries forced changes.

GOLF

Tournament Play Readies Golf Team

Sinking a first in Lampasas, a second in Abilene, and a fifth in Brownwood, the 1971 Jacket golf team closed the season with a second place finish in district under the guidance of Coach Horace Morgan.

The 1972 golf team was boosted by returning lettermen Mark Beatty, Joe Cates, Dean Fikar, Charles Hoera, Lindy Miller, Greg Myers, Marc Trout, and Steven Wagner. The squad prepared for the district tournament in April, through play at community courses and participation in tournaments. The team won four pre-district tournaments, while Fikar, Miller, Myers, Trout, and David Miller played district for the squad.

TRACK

Indoor Track Meet Opens New Season

Coming off the 1971 track season with a second-place finish in the district meet, the Jacket cindermen looked to good times in cross-country but fell short of the previous year's season.

Guided by coaches Joe Galiga and Henry Harvey, the 1972 track team began preparing in early fall for their upcoming season which opened February 4 with the Coaches Indoor Track Meet.

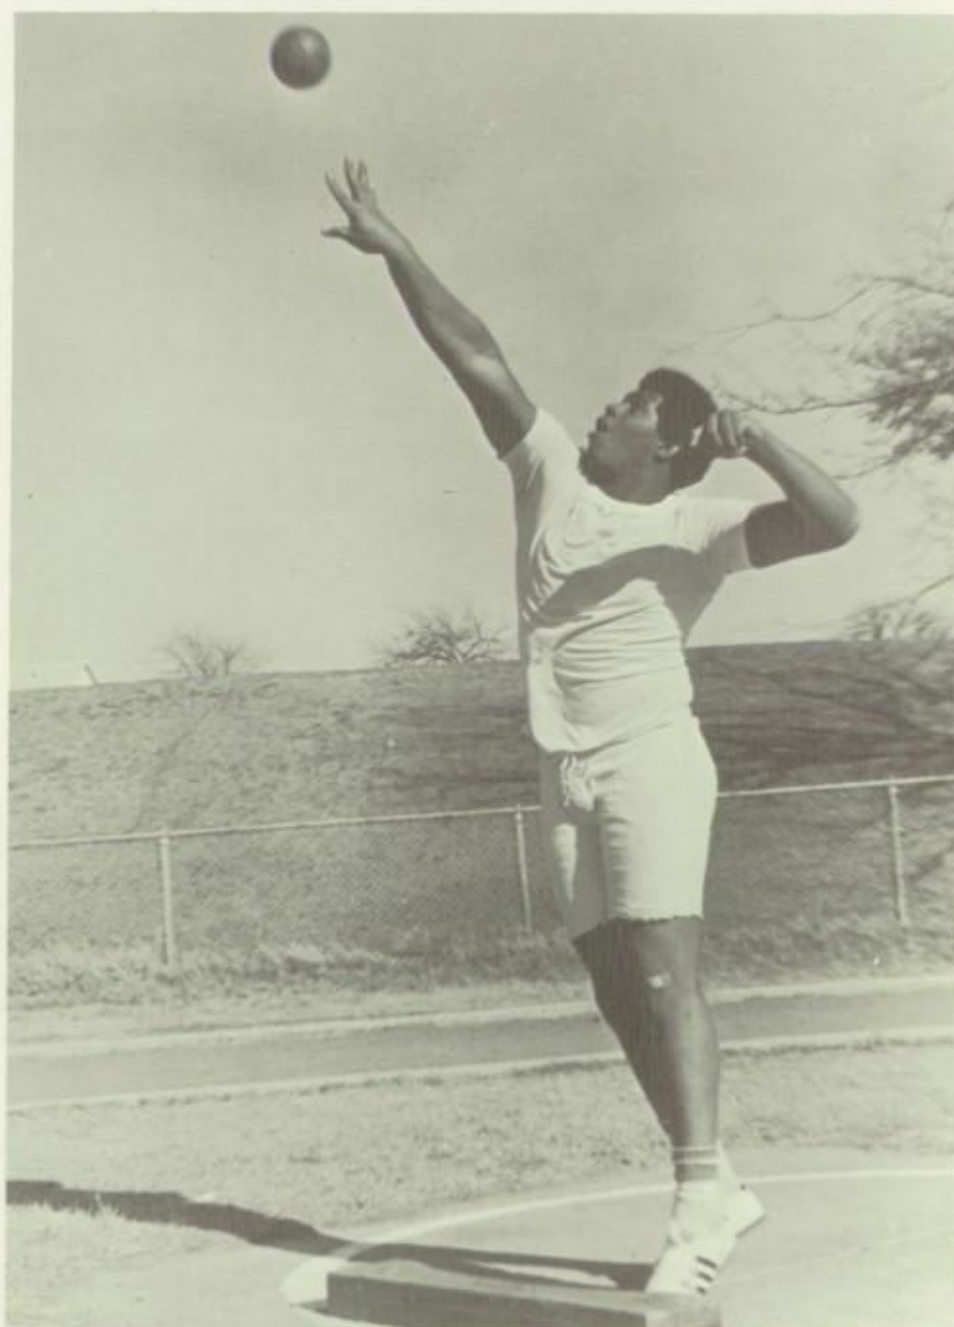

Inexperience plagued the team; however, the squad produced Dale Parker's fourth in the high jump, a second and third in the pole vault by Casey Sanford and Chip Heald, respectively, and a fifth by Norman McGinnis in the 60 yard dash. From this meet, the boys gained experience.

BASEBALL

JV Baseball Works Toward District

Hoping to improve on last year's second-place district finish, the 1972 junior varsity baseball team, composed of freshmen, sophomores and juniors, began workouts in mid-January in preparation for an April 4 district opener.

Under the direction of Coach Larry Wood, the squad polished techniques in batting and fielding needed during preseason and district matches.

Promising players were pitchers Byron Thornton and Mike Mooney, catchers David Daniels and Tommy Flores, outfielders Karl Biggs and Buddy Sample, and infielders Gary Gibson, David Moody and Tom Porter. Varsity players Mike Childers and Tom Rieber also started.

BASEBALL

'Golden Yellow Jackets' Bag City Title

Compiling a lackluster 6-8 preseason mark, the 1971 Jacket baseball squad came to life as district play opened. Pitcher Greg Ferguson allowed only three hits in the first two games, and the district's "Cinderella team" sprang from rags to riches, taking the 10-AAAA district title with a 12-3 record which included four shutouts.

With the district crown in their mitts, Heights faced 9-AAAA champion Wyatt in the city playoffs at Turnpike Stadium. The Chaps dumped the Jackets 5-0 in the series' first game, but a 5-3 Heights win in the second threw the series into a third and deciding game.

Top city pitchers Ferguson and Jeff Seargeant met in a head-to-head duel, but Mark Jones tripled in pinch-runner Mack Mercer in the eighth inning to tumble the Chaps 2-1 and send Heights to regional against Dallas Hillcrest.

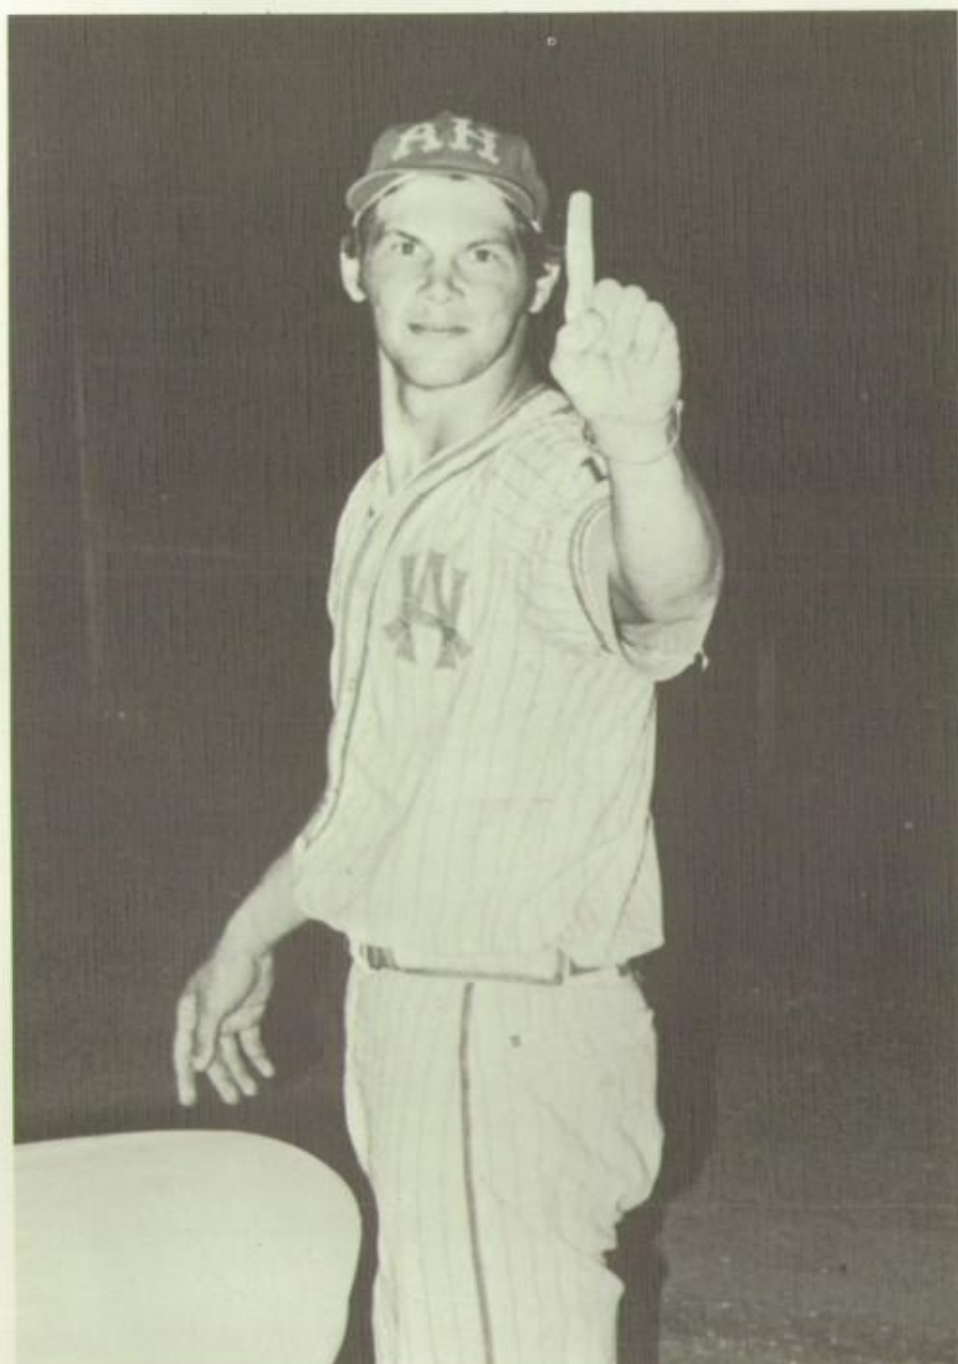

A twelve-inning struggle kicked off the series, as Glen Gibson slugged a triple to deep left and Bobby Smith sneaked home to untie a 3-3 knot as the Turnpike clock neared midnight. Gibson scored on an error and Ferguson struck out three straight Panthers to wind up the marathon.

The Panthers overcame Heights' magic in the second game with a 2-1 win, but Rusty Jacobs led off the third match with a double, and the "Golden Yellow Jackets" stashed away a 4-0 win and the series.

Heights then met the Lufkin Panthers, losing the first game 1-0 and dropping the second 8-2 deep in the East Texas backwoods.

Ferguson, who compiled an 0.96 earned-run average for the season, was named 10-AAAA player of the year by both the Star-Telegram and Press. Second baseman Mark Jones, who led hitters with a .395 average, and outfielder Curtis Runyon were unanimous all-district picks, and first baseman Bobby Smith also made the squad. Ferguson later accepted a scholarship to Oklahoma State.

Nine Veterans Add Potential to Squad

Returning nine regulars off the 1971 regional champions, the 1972 Jacket baseball squad looked forward to their opening date March 1.

Coached by Roland Maclin, the nine returning regulars included seniors John Fruge, Glen Gibson, Rusty

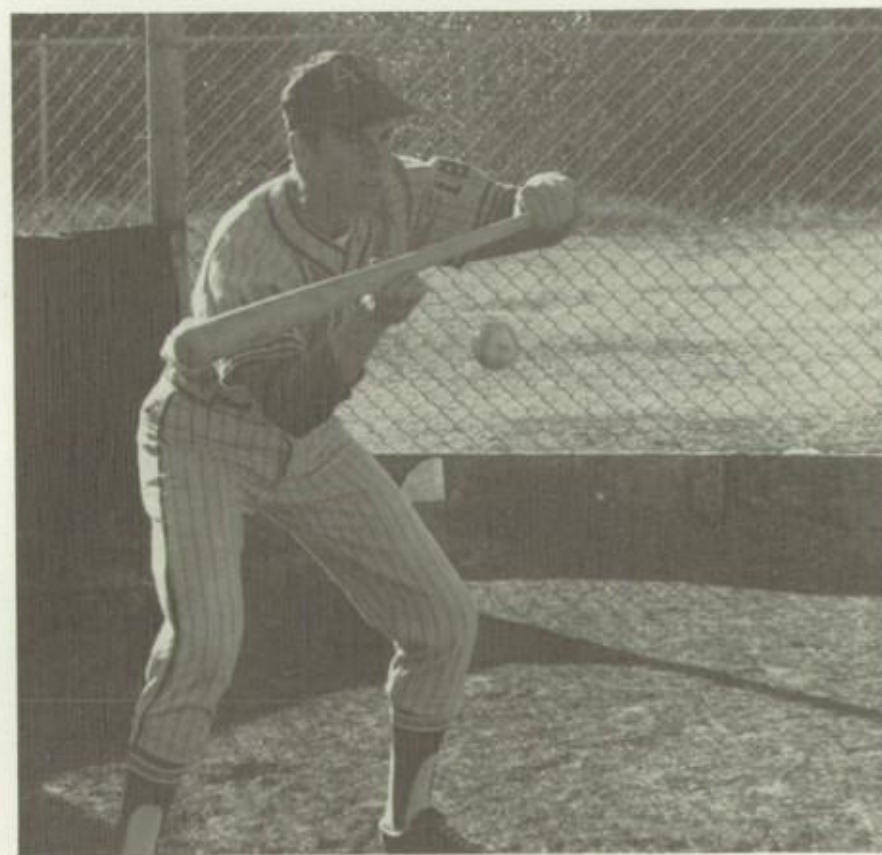

Jacobs, Mark Jones, and Curtis Runyon, plus juniors Mike Amos, Mark Julian, Bobby Smith, and Rob Wall.

The 1972 squad again was tested by a tough preseason, which included three games in Abilene and play in the Cowtown Tournament before the beginning of district play. Taking second in the Cowtown, they compiled an 11-4 preseason mark, with Jones and Jacobs each batting .400-plus. Junior Charles Kelly, who had a 4-1 preseason mark, joined Smith (2-1) and Wall (4-0) for mound duty.

ALLIED YOUTH

AY Conference Highlights Busy Year

Allied Youth, the oldest club at Heights, is also the most actively supported. Its purpose is to inform students of the dangers of alcoholic beverages and narcotics.

Shannon Cox and Dave Ratliff were co-presidents of the organization sponsored by Mrs. Martha Austin, Mrs. Marian Vaughan, and Mr. Arch Van Meter.

Officers were Josh Baker, publicity; Harriette Ray, projects and finance; Karen Keil, membership; and Kathy Shelton, socials.

The club sponsored such varied activities as a Howdy Week dance, bike race, Thanksgiving dance, and a ping-pong tournament during the year. Several members from Heights attended the Allied Youth International Conference held early in the fall.

In March, Southwest Allied Youth Conference was held in Fort Worth at Camp Carter. SWAY officers were elected, with two Heights representatives nominated.

Pep Club Encourages School Spirit

Heightened enthusiasm at all sports events was largely due to the efforts of Spirit of the Hill. Originally consisting of 72 members, the club expanded to include four new Como transfers and Carlos Bethencourt, a foreign exchange student.

Officers included Donna Self, president; Billy McKenzie, vice-president; Bill Hines, secretary; and Honey Burns, treasurer. Along with four faculty sponsors, Mrs. Beverly Ross, Mrs. Kathleen Hanley, Mr. Bernard Lionberger, and Mrs. Mary Marsh, the club instigated many new ideas on the field and in the stands. Members helped at school with PTC meetings and during Career Opportunity night.

Angela Garner, Ann Lindsay, and Honey Burns were responsible for securing new club uniforms.

Projects, including a bake sale, car wash, and garage sale, were held to raise club funds to be donated to the school's athletic department.

CHEERLEADERS

Squad Grows in Hopes of Better Spirit

Fourteen enthusiastic Jacket cheerleaders spent a busy summer, practicing an average of 15 hours a week.

In August, they attended the state cheerleading competition at SMU in Dallas. During their week long stay, representatives were evaluated and actual competition was held. The cheerleaders displayed their talents well, earning three first places and one third place. After winning the "spirit stick" for three days in a row, they were allowed to keep it and used it to inspire spirit in pep rallies.

New uniforms were added to their repertoire and several old styles were discarded.

Freshman Debra Malone and senior Art Keith Williams, transfer students from Como High School, were elected and added to the squad in October, making a total of sixteen cheerleaders.

An encouraging member of the faculty, Miss Helen Hale served as cheerleader sponsor. She supervised activities of the squad as it decorated the auditorium, arranged for guest speakers, and generated spirit at pep rallies throughout the year.

Council Approves New Constitution

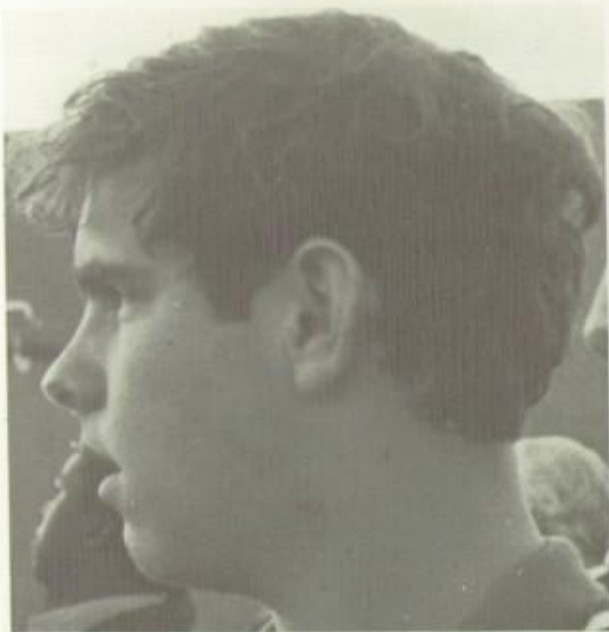

The Student Council was a large, more up to date body this year with the addition of Como students and a completely new constitution.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Homer Ludiker and Mrs. Glenna Edwards, the council undertook many activities, most of them traditional.

Howdy Week opened the year, with a bus trip to San Angelo following soon after. A booth was set up in the hall where bumper stickers, footballs, keychains and telephone book covers could be bought, all bearing the Heights insignia. During Christmas, a "Happening" was held in the parking lot with hot chocolate being served, and elves were again seen roaming the halls delivering Christmas Gifts furnished by the Student Council. An ice skating party with a broomball game was held in March.

BOOK JACKETS

Book Jackets Assist in Library Work

Assisting the librarians during their free periods was a group of students called the Book Jackets. Their duties were to check books in and out, shelve books and magazines, write overdue slips, and assist students in finding reference material.

These volunteers were on office duty and received credit toward graduation for their work.

Activities of the club included ice skating at a Christmas party and a picnic in May to honor graduates and installing officers for next year.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Mary Skipworth, sponsor, Book Jacket officers were Donna Reed, president; Gary Angel, vice-president; and Collette Pierce, secretary.

Cadets See Intensive Field Training

Participating in two unique maneuvers during the year was the AHHS Reserve Officers Training Corps. The first was staged at the National Grasslands near Decatur, Texas, and the other took place at the National Guard Armory at Eagle Mountain. Mock bombings, using flour sacks, were made on the troops. This was the first aerial attack practice for the group.

ROTC instructors were Sgt. Herman Bresciani and Sgt. Cemit Thomas. Lieutenant Cadet Colonel Roger Harman, senior, represented the Heights ROTC as executive officer of the All City Brigade and was named ROTC outstanding First-Year Cadet in the city.

During the year many of the cadets made a trip to Oak Grove Airport to observe Army helicopters. Other activities included a holiday Thanksgiving Turkey Shoot and a Valentine's Day Cupid Shoot.

Sponsors for the corps were as follows: Georgann Truitt, Kathleen Smith, Sylvia Almaguer, Kathy Walker, Emma Ware, Kay Stanfield, and Dianna Johnson.

A-Cappella Group Compliments Chorus

During Miss Fran Brown's second year at Heights, the a capella choir and mixed chorus performed at Western Hills High School and Texas Wesleyan College's All City Choral Clinic, as well as for Open House and the student body.

The a capella choir, in its first year, sang for the Fort Worth Council of English Teachers and the Council of Parents and Teachers. They also competed in the UIL Regional Choral event at T.C.U.

Although involved with many official appearances, the mixed chorus also found time to sing at several retirement homes.

Both choirs were busy with money-making projects including stationery sales and bake sales. Profits financed forty chorus uniforms.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Carson Sees Final Year at Heights

Mr. George Carson makes use of a bull-horn to direct the band at a Heights basketball game.

In his final year before retiring, Mr. G. H. Carson led the Jacket Band in support of the Arlington Heights student body by serving it at football and basketball games, pep rallies, and school sponsored events.

In order to provide funds to transport the band to a football game in San Angelo, members sold bumper stickers announcing "The Jackets Are Back!"

In November, the band competed in the University Interscholastic League marching contest. Joining with the orchestra, the band entered the UIL concert contest at Trinity High School April 19 and 20.

The instrumental department boasted many talented musicians, such as George D'Ascenzo, senior, who earned a place in the All State Youth Symphony. Selected for the All Region Band was Cara Beth Phelan, senior.

Members of the band perform for basketball fans.

Terry Crummel, junior, and Mike Wood and Ronald Hicks, freshmen, participate in the various functions of the band.

The Heights Band forms an "H" in its parade formations at a Varsity football game.

SCIENCE RESEARCH GROUP

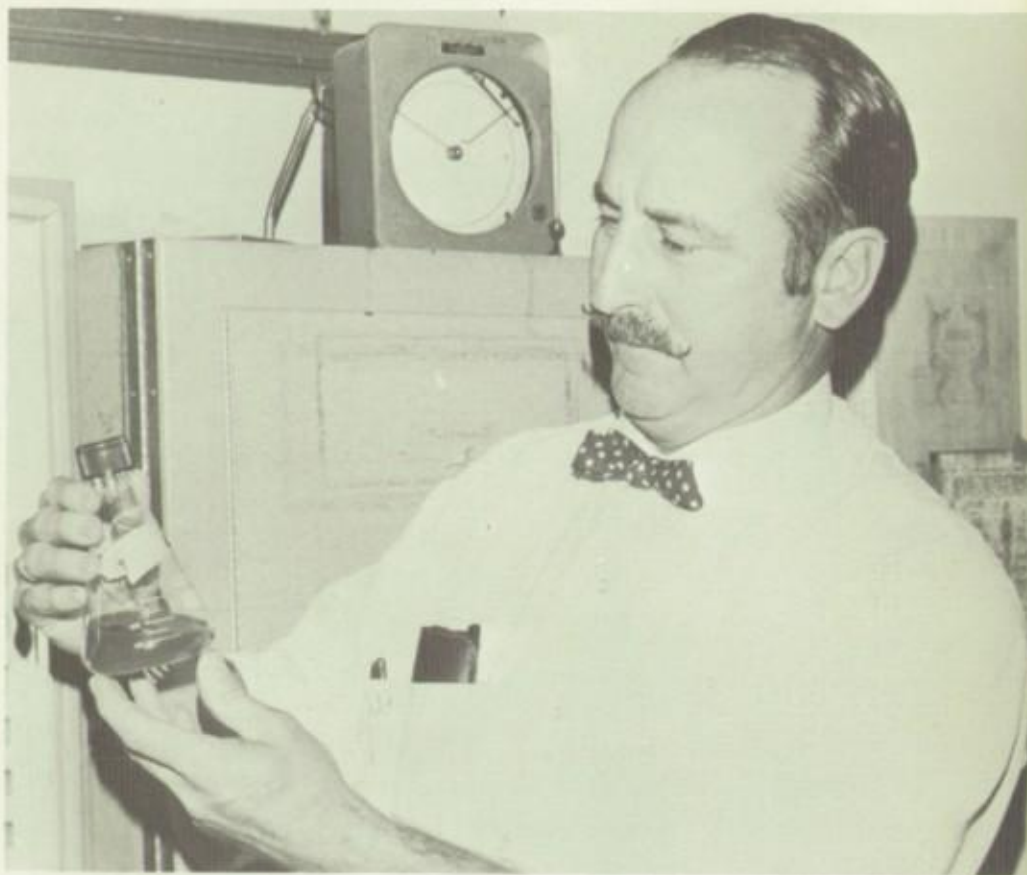

Year-Long Study Seeks DDT Eater

Under the direction of Mr. Flavin Arseneau, the Science Research Group tackled one of the world's major ecological problems, that of finding a strain of bacteria capable of breaking down DDT.

Members of the club worked during the Christmas holidays gathering materials, realizing the project could take anywhere from one to five years or longer.

The experiment began with an isolation process of micro-organisms, followed by a critical testing period of subjecting animal and plant life to the bacteria. If no harmful effects are found, perhaps a method of producing a substitute for DDT will be proven.

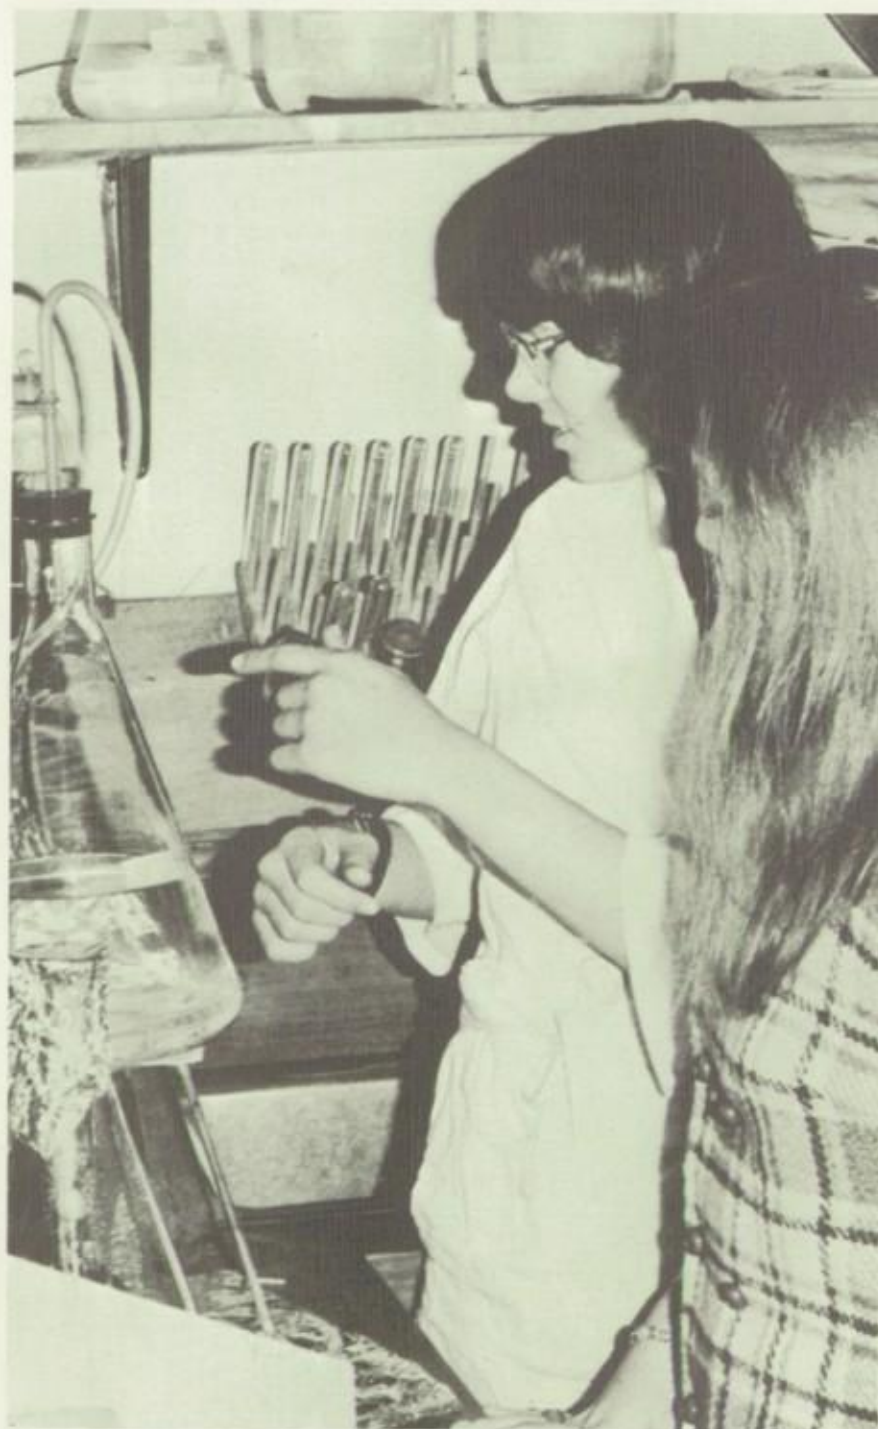

Included in the group were Kirk Kilgore, president; Johanne Bernier, secretary; Alain Bernier, freshman; John Hawk, Charles Henning, and Bill LaSalle, sophomores.

Mr. Flavin Arseneau, sponsor, searches for signs of culture growth.

For his cereal dilution, John Hawk measures 200 ml. of broth.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

DE Combines Working With Learning

Development of leadership qualities, civic consciousness, and vocational understanding were the objectives set forth by the DE program. The Distributive Education student had an opportunity to participate in many activities which teach him not only to assume leadership obligations but to serve in the capacities of both follower and leader.

A group of DE students made field trips to the State Fair and the Apparel Mart in Dallas.

Three DE students competed in the state convention. They were Frank Clegg, service station trainee; Debbie McDowell, job interview; and Debbie Washburn, advertising. sponsor Mrs. Jacqueline Frazer.

OFFICE EDUCATION

Business Skills Developed Through VOE

Aimed at developing leadership, business skills, and school loyalty, Office Education aided students in their choices of business occupations and improved standards for office employment.

Finances for the annual Employer Appreciation Banquet and an area conference in Dallas were raised through the sale of over $1,000 worth of various "notions."

At the Employer Banquet, OEA students were entertained by guest speaker Mr. Jack Jackson, instructor at the American Airlines Flight Academy at Greater Southwest Airport. Heights was represented at the area conference, held in Dallas, as delegates ran for offices and entered skills contests.

OEA OFFICERS. Bobbye Brewer, parliamentarian and Bill Johnson, vice president.

DEBATE CLUB

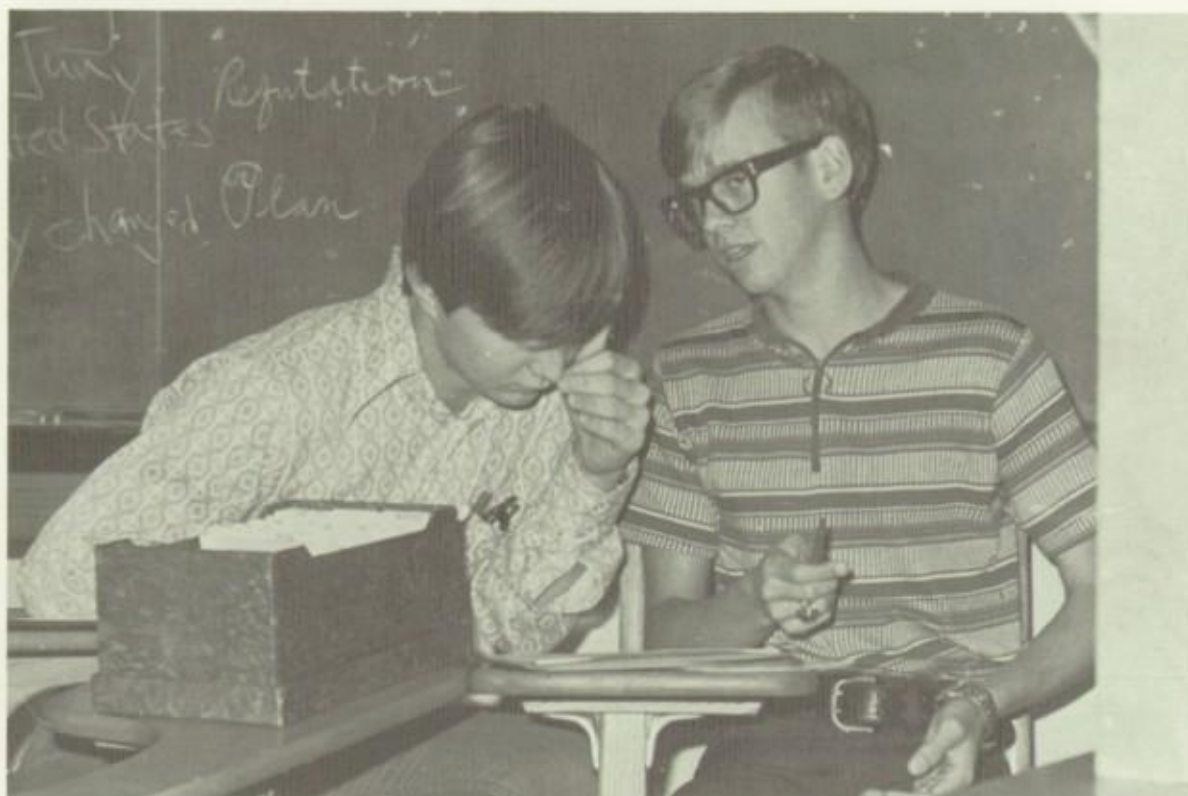

Club Debates Change for Jury System

Organized just before Christmas under the supervision of Mrs. Jean Mitchell, the Debate Club was planned to help students learn to arrange their thoughts and express themselves clearly.

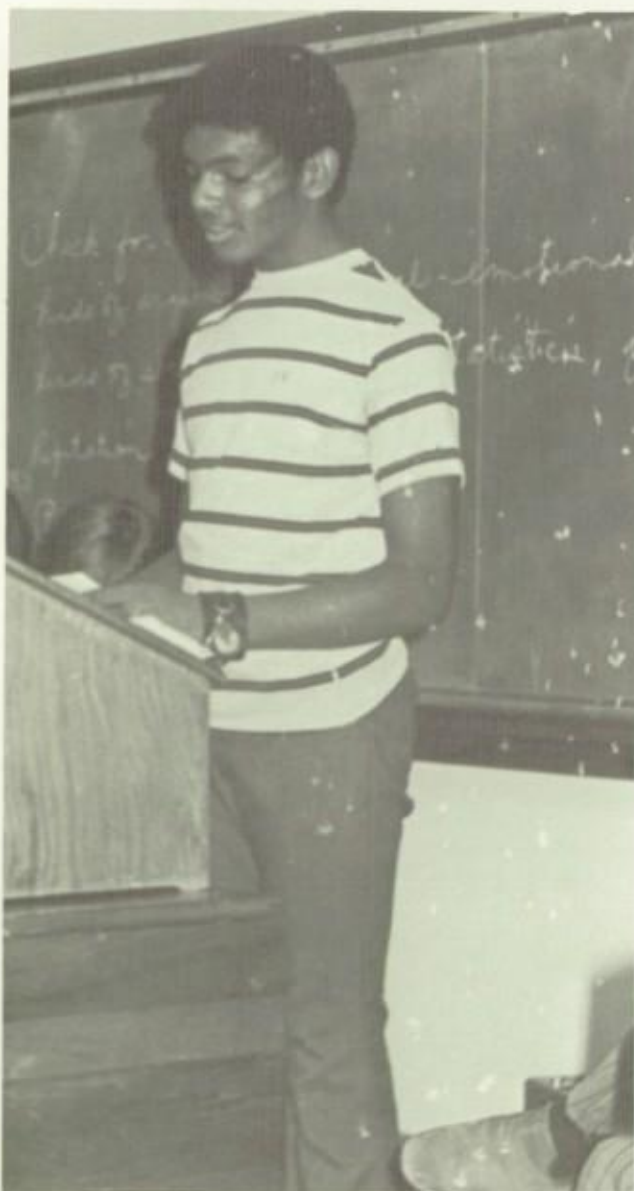

Their first tournament was in January at Jesuit High School in Dallas in which they won one round. Two tourneys at TCJC followed, with the club being defeated in the finals. They also participated in matches at Baylor University in February and in two tournaments in March. They entered district competition in April.

The officers were Don Coffey, chairman, and Eddie Gant, Vice-chairman.

The topic for competitive debate this year was "Should the U.S. Jury System be Significantly Changed?" In tournament, the clubs were given a side of the issue and debated from that side.

Officers, Eddie Gant and Don Coffey discuss their positive views on "Changes in the Jury System."

TRI-HI-Y

Tri-Hi-Y Promotes Good Citizenship

Tri-Hi-Y, a YMCA sponsored organization, was organized to help teach students citizenship.

This year, Tri-Hi-Y aided the community in various service projects, such as Urban Ministries. They also sold fruit cakes in October and had a bake sale in February.

The officers for this year were Joan Birdwell, president; Susan Moser, vice-president; Barbara Rowe, secretary; Meredith Blanford, treasurer; and Tony Morris, chaplain.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Homemakers Work Toward Leadership

Future Homemakers of America, is designed to help girls and boys obtain leadership. Achievement in FHA comes in three degrees. Junior, Chapter, and State, and members work toward them voluntarily. Reaching these goals requires participation in activities related to home, school and community. Part of the purpose of FHA is to bring all three of these goals together.

Some of this year's projects were preparing baskets of fruit at Christmas for a nursing home and baking cookies for the Children's Hospital. The club also worked with international projects. Each year the two members who received the most points, acquired by achievement in club activities, are eligible to attend the FHA Convention.

YELLOW JACKET

Yearbook Staff Initiates New Advisor

Despite rumors that Heights would have its first summer annual, this year's book came out on time. Sometimes working during annual period in school wasn't enough so staffers celebrated the return of the all-night meeting with breakfasts at the Pancake House, and there were all-day get togethers.

Sponsorship of the Yellow Jacket changed hands this year, as Mrs. Sylvia Tottenham, English teacher, took the advisory position.

The traditional Christmas party was held at Joe Garcia's, with the gifts varying from bottles of Scope to paddle toys. As the final deadline rolled around unexpectedly, there were many frayed nerves while winding up a year's work and sending another yearbook to print.

Editors, Verne Garrison and Kathe Ambrose, and photographer Doug Hampton exhibit the closeness found among Yellow Jacket staff members.

Format Expanded to Include Artists

Creative writing classes, under the auspices of Mrs. Martha Melton, put together the Impressions magazine.

This year the traditional literary magazine was changed into an art magazine, with not only written, but drawn or photographed compositions being submitted.

Trying to emphasize student participation, the qualifications for entry of written material were lowered. It may have been written at any time in the author's life and only one copy, with an English teacher's approval and a coversheet, was required.

The main sales campaign was held during the first trimester and students bought magazines through their English classes. Because of limited sales, the staff held a bake sale in February.

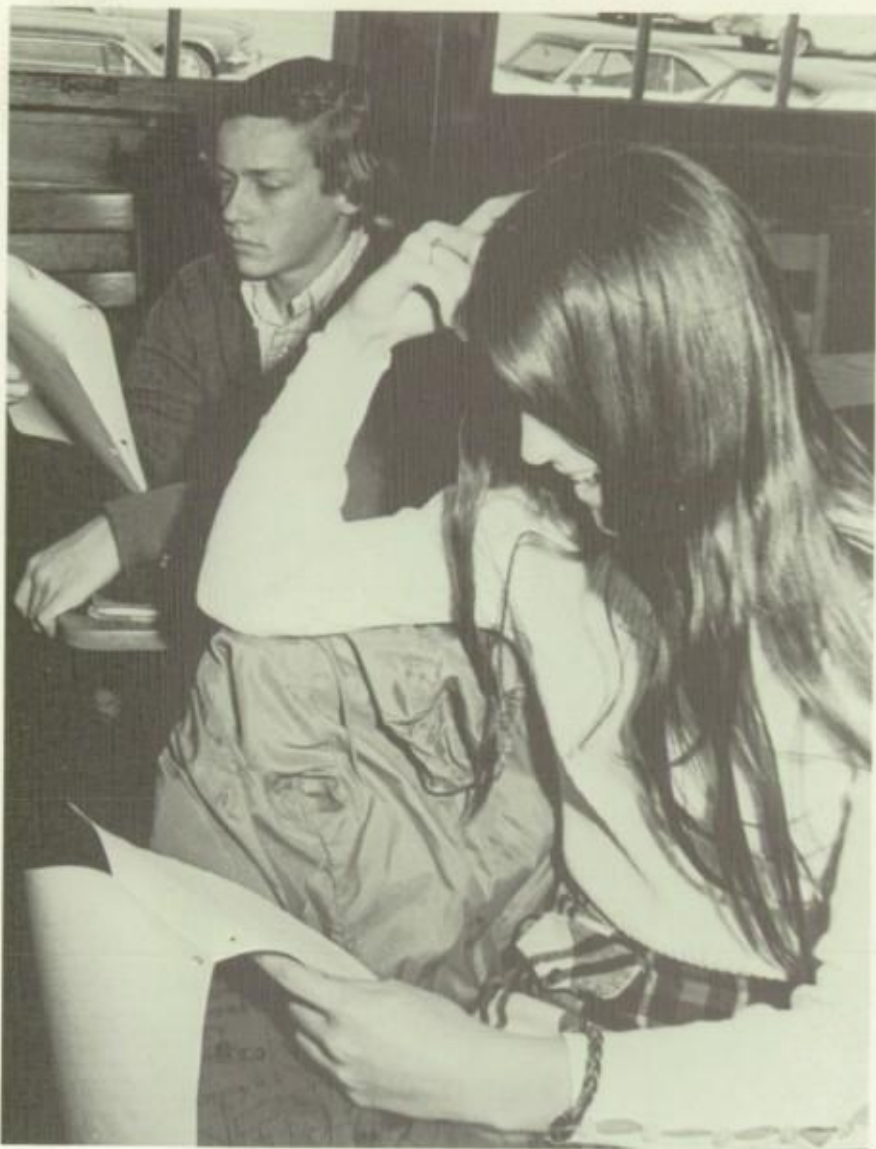

Rusty Cutchin, Art Underwood, and Shannon McDonald, seniors, receive instructions from Mrs. Martha Melton for the Impressions magazine drive.

Jacket Journal Reports Year's Events

Three staffs published the Jacket Journal in the Fall, Winter, and Spring trimesters. Advisors for the staffs included sponsor Mrs. Gene Thompson and editor D'Anne Derdeyn.

The first paper contained material to acquaint new students with AHHS, including a map of the campus and information concerning the football schedule for the season. This free "mini edition" was to promote subscription sales.

In March, Kathy Woodcock and Scott Daniels attended the Interscholastic League Press Convention in Austin where the Jacket Journal received an Award of Distinguished Merit. At a publications banquet held at the end of the year, several members of the staff were presented membership in the Quill and Scroll, a national society for outstanding high school journalists. The paper received a certificate of merit from the Texas High School Press Association in Denton.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Carlos Brings Venezuelan Twist to Hill

American Field Service, a foreign exchange student program, boasted a largely increased membership this year. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Beverly Ross, started the year off with a picnic at General Dynamics Recreation Center and, later on, had a program at Heights for AFS members.

Carlos Bethencourt, from Caracas, Venezuela was this year's exchange student on the Hill. A senior, Carlos, stayed with his American "brother," Verne Garrison. Taking an active part in school activities, Carlos was a member of Spirit of the Hill, the Swim Team and he also participated in Young Life.

As the "brother" of exchange student Carlos Bethencourt, Verne Garrison is always ready with some friendly advice.

RODEO CLUB

Rodeo Club Increases Activity, Members

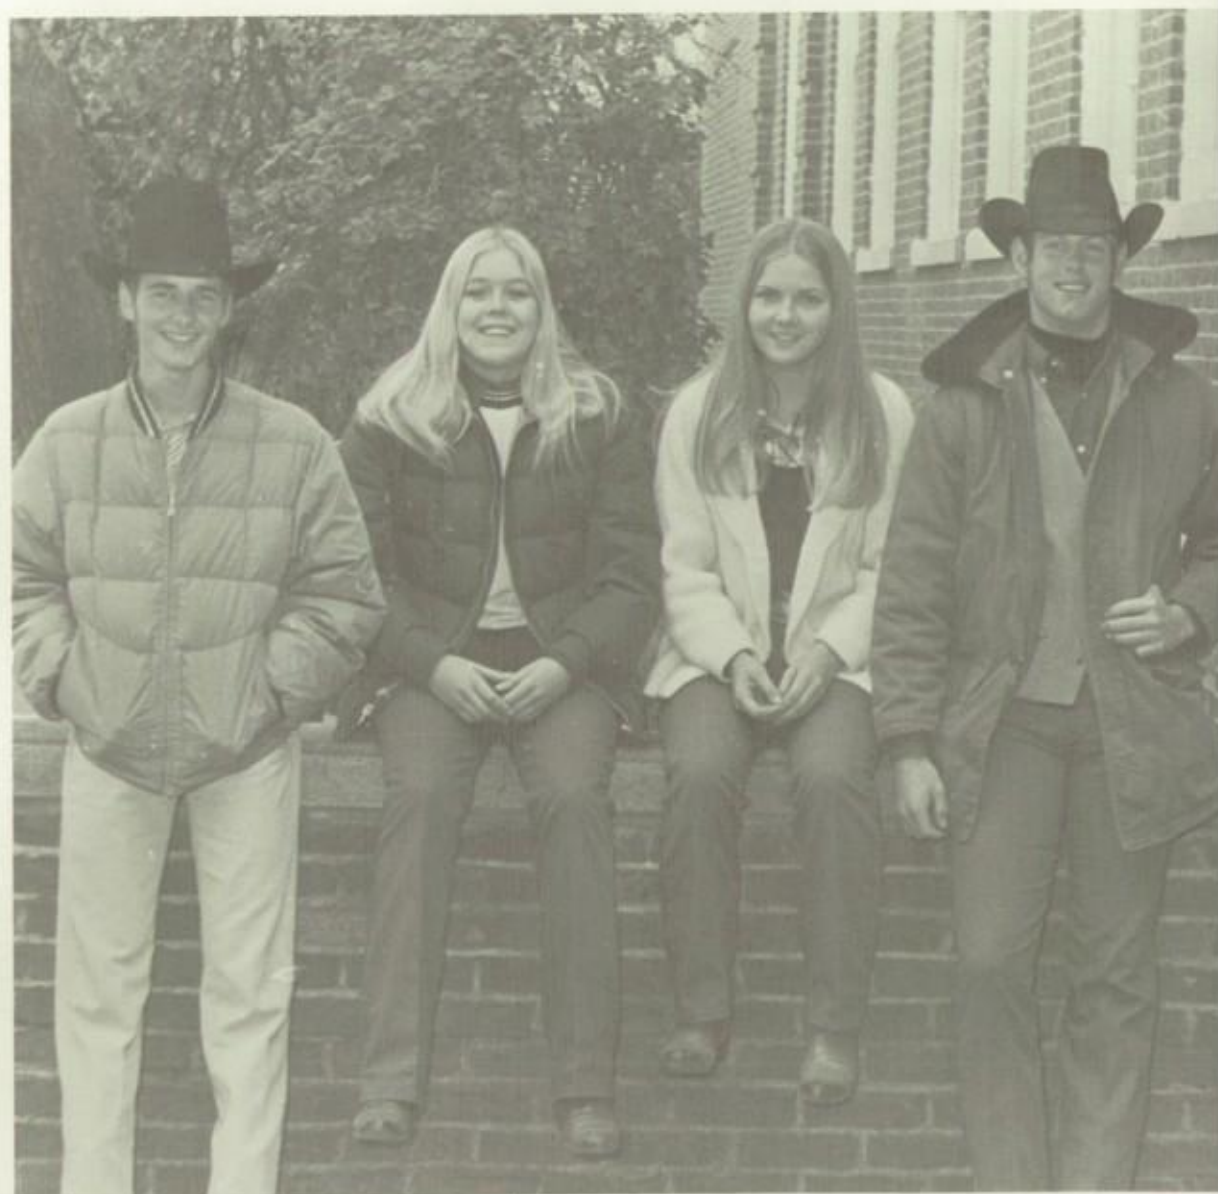

Throughout the year, the Arlington Heights Rodeo Club participated in high school rodeos, including one in Boyd, Texas. A relatively new club, it had increased membership this year.

Officers were Jim Calhoun, president; Sandra Hamilton, vice-president; Kim Murray, secretary; and Dale Fincher, treasurer. Larry Fuller was voted the Most Outstanding Member.

Members could qualify for AHHS Rodeo Club vests by gaining points scored in various rodeo events.

In the spring, the club ended the year by having their own rodeo.

FRENCH CLUB

New French Club Included at Heights

Heights got a new organization this year, the French Club. Supervised by Mrs. Gladys Bright and Mrs. Diane Burnett, its goal is better understanding of the French people and their language.

The club sponsored many activities during the year, such as caroling in French, having speakers, and having a French pastry sale.

Officers were as follows: Joan Birdwell, president; Marlene Johnson, vice president; Cindy Honey, secretary; Johanne Bernier, historian; Diane Bernier, refreshment chairman; Kathy Fowler, telephone chairman.

Representing Heights' teachers' original ideas and suggestions was the Faculty Council.

The group included nine members and was concerned with the alteration of exam schedules for teachers' convenience, the formation of a math office, and the establishment of a special remedial reading program. Suggested, but not yet passed, were plans for enlarging Heights.

Composing the council were Mr.

ADMINISTRATION

Integration Challenges School Board

Fully confident that teachers and administrators in the school system were competent to handle the problems surrounding integration, Supt. Julius Truelson informed school personnel at an August convocation of busing and "cluster" plans.

Truelson felt it crucially important that all employees make every effort to make the plans successful, to utilize skills and ideas. In his words, "We should be patient and calm in the face of the strong emotion and prejudice which each of us will face."

Expressing the opinion that the integration issue was the greatest challenge of the school system, the superintendent added that the time to overcome such challenges is when the problems are the toughest.

English Workshops Enhance Curriculum

English classes had a more varied curriculum than ever before at Heights this year.

Workshops were held with team teaching used for the combined classes. Many films were shown, including the Academy Award winning movie, Hamlet.

Some of the plays studied were Hamlet and Antigone.

HISTORY

Practical Experience Aids in Teaching

Entertaining guest speakers, publishing an original newspaper, and holding a mock gubernatorial election occupied government class time. In the spring, they also held a non-partisan political rally.

To gain insight into the workings of the judicial system and learn first-hand information about the courts, the classes visited the Civil Courts Building and spoke with lawyers from the Junior Bar Association and district judges.

In world history classes, students learned by a new teaching method which concentrated on concepts rather than arbitrary facts. Memorization of dates and historical characters was no longer stressed.

MATHEMATICS

Computers Lessen Percentage Error

The computer mathematics course at AHHS provided the fundamentals for further progress in all areas of computer technology.

Today's computers perform calculations hundreds of thousands of times per second, relieving man from the tedium and possible error of these calculations.

Preparing interested students in programming the computer and learning its language, Mr. Arthur Tave also taught physics and math.

Forest Ranger Teaches Aviation Class

In addition to acquiring a general knowledge of aeronautics, Mr. Bernard Lionberger's aviation class also gained actual flying experience. Students were offered optional flying on weekends and after school at Meacham Field for a moderate cost.

Designed to educate students in the world of aviation and to prepare them for private pilot's licenses, the course was open to both boys and girls.

Student Investors Gamble $1,000!

Enrolled in consumer education classes, students developed interests in home finance, the stock market, and budgeting. Further studies included the banking system and the hazards of owning a credit card.

Each person was given an imaginary $1,000 to choose a stock and invest in it. At the end of the allotted time, the students reported on their stock's progress.

The course also included a field trip to an investment company in town.

Woodshop Teaches Construction Skills

Industrial Arts prospered at Heights this year. Woodshop students, taught by Mr. Neil Richmond, participated in individual projects during the year and constructed such items as speaker cabinets, gun cases, and cutting boards. They also acquired two new lathes, thus improving the quality of their machinery.

An old Opel engine was employed by power mechanics students for demonstrations. The class was instructed by Mr. Larkus Cooper. Metal shop classes, taught by Mr. David Maggard, tried to get a new furnace and mill in working order.

Freshmen Find Experiences Challenging

The class of '75, beginning their first year on the Hill, approached their new surroundings with mixed emotions and expectations.

Varied interests of the 682 freshmen contributed much to the spirit and individuality of Heights students, as they joined in many activities and organizations.

Freshman Janet Lockaby ponders a difficult question.

Chosen in January, Peggy Stocker and Stuart Montague were the favorites of the freshman class. Kaydee Brown and Billy Scheihing were the finalists.

Peggy was a first year member of Spirit of the Hill, Student Council, and Allied Youth. Her interests include Young Life, trampoline, bicycling, and tennis.

Stuart, a freshman football and baseball player, was Howdy King. He enjoys both water and snow skiing in his spare time.

Also a Howdy Queen, Kaydee was freshman football queen and a one year member of SOH. She enjoys water sports and Young Life.

Billy, a sports enthusiast, played football and basketball, and was a Student Council representative.

Spanish Skits Make Class Interesting

Dressed in Spanish costume, Mrs. Evelyn McCluney's level two freshman classes performed skits based on Spanish dialogues. The skits, which were used as a review for the final, helped to interest students in the language and displayed Mexican culture. Students used everything from showing slides on bullfighting, siestas on desks, and airplane rides, to singing serenades under windows and hair-dressing.

Caesar Comes Alive for Sophomores

Intending to become familiar with the literature of Shakespeare, sophomore English classes spent several weeks studying his plays.

On November 11, these sophomores attended the performance of Julius Caesar at Casa Manana. Missing half a day of school, they were bussed to the theater. Some classes then planned a Caesar Day in which students dressed in costumes similar to the fashions worn in the early days of Rome and performed skits depicting some aspect of the play. The skits were spoofs on the real tragedy, having cowboy, hippie, and beatnik themes.

Sophomore students gather for the field trip to Casa Manana to see Julius Caesar.

Rice Acquires Experiences in Music

Wilber Rice began singing in the Como Elementary School chorus and later joined the Texas Boys' Choir in 1967.

With the choir, he has traveled to engagements in New York, Louisiana, New Mexico, and several cities in Texas. Along with five other choir members, Wilber was honored by being invited to sing with the Santa Fe Opera. Singing second alto, he occasionally soloed in these performances.

The sophomore participated with the entire Boys' Choir in the recording of an educational album, "Exploring Music" for elementary school music classes.

A member of Spirit of the Hill, Wilber attended Como High School last year and was active in the production of The Littlest Wiseman at Scott Theatre, playing the part of one of the Nativity angels.

'Big Time' Juniors Gain New Status

"Who are . . . who are we?
We are . . . Seniors '73!"

As their third year at Arlington Heights came to a close, the blazing trail left behind by the "Big Time" juniors will serve as a mark in Heights history.

Leadership qualities displayed by these students promised a super senior year, with almost every organization represented by members of the class of '73.

JUNIOR FAVORITE FINALISTS: PAUL COZBY and ALLISON KERR

Juniors chose Anne Szablowski and Houston Kauffman as their favorites, and Allison Kerr and Paul Cozby were the finalists.

Anne was also sophomore favorite and has been a cheerleader for two years. A student councilman, Anne enjoys swimming and Young Life in her spare time.

A National Honor Society member, Houston was vice president of the Student Council this year and played varsity football. Hunting and fishing occupy much of Houston's time.

Athletically minded, Allison was a three year swimming team letterman, and outside school, enjoys tennis and horseback riding. A finalist for most beautiful in 1971, Allison was a one year member of Spirit of the Hill and of the Student Council.

Paul, a cheerleader, was also a three year member of Allied Youth. He enjoys water skiing, basketball and Young Life.

History Teacher Supports Spirit Ranks

Mrs. Kathleen Hanley, wife of Dr. Lawrence A. Hanley, a professor of music at Texas Christian University, has been a teacher in the history department at Arlington Heights for 16 years. She was once described in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram as "the loudest cheering TCU faculty wife."

An avid Jacket sports fan, she was the first junior class sponsor of the Spirit of the Hill to purchase and wear the uniform of the club, a blue jumper and gold shirt. Considering it an honor to represent our spirited student body, Mrs. Hanley attended many basketball games with chemistry teacher Miss Dona Stovall. Throughout the year Mrs. Hanley supported all athletic teams by composing poems to be read at pep rallies and delivering words of encouragement to team members.

Child Care Course Offered to Juniors

Offered for the first time at Arlington Heights was the Pre-employment Child Development Course, a preparatory introduction to those planning to become employed in some aspect of child care.

Two hours a day of on-the-job training was acquired at one of three participating elementary schools; South Hi Mount, Como, and Mary Louise Phillips.

A 40-minute class, taught by Mrs. Annette Bernard, was held at school each day to discuss experiences and any difficulties encountered during this training.

72's Hilltop Reign Fades Into the Past

Nostalgia plagued 530 Heights seniors as they neared the end of an eventful 3 year stay at Heights.

During their stay, the 1972 seniors experienced a series of firsts and lasts. They were here when the trimester began; they were here when the new integration plan went into effect, and this year's senior girls were the first to decorate the new field house. Heights and O. D. Wyatt were the first teams to play football at the new stadium, Clark Field, in 1971, and "elf day" at Christmas time was established during their stay.

Faculty changes were extensive, as many "regulars" said goodbye.

They were also the last class of seniors to stay three years at Heights, with freshmen coming in when they were sophomores.

They were a part of Heights just as Heights was a part of them, and neither will forget the other.

Enjoying a 'Happening' in Mrs. Vaughan's English class are David Bailey, Gary Purvis, and Darendia Elkins.

MR. AND MISS AHHS

George, Beckie Given Highest Honors

Beckie Ray and George Montague were elected to the titles of Mr. and Miss AHHS by the student body out of a list of 37 nominees in October. This honor is the highest attainable by a senior.

Beckie (Scooty) Ray served three years as cheerleader, was Sophomore Favorite and Howdy Queen, and was a member of Allied Youth for two years. She also served as chairman for the Student Council decorations committee, and directed the sales campaign for the Impressions magazine.

George (Bacon) Montague proved his leadership abilities, working as the Student Council's representative to the Fort Worth United High School Council, acting as sophomore cheerleader, and participating in Spirit of the Hill his junior year. He was particularly interested in government, displayed through his role as president of the Student Council. Young Life ranked as George's main extra-curricular activity, and he enjoyed all outdoor sports.

Finalists Show Outstanding Leadership

Jan Birdwell, a two year member of Spirit of the Hill, was a cheerleader this year. Young Life and drama were among her main interests, and she worked in Footlight Players last year.

Also a two year member of SOH and an alternate cheerleader this year, Debby Morris was last year's junior favorite. She was a three year member of AY and was active in Young Life.

Vice-president of the Senior Class, Mike Reed was a National Merit Semi-Finalist. As a junior Mike was a member of the junior varsity baseball team. His other activities included Young Life and electronics for which he won the Panasonic Engineering Award last year.

Another cheerleader, Alan Friedman, heads up the Student Council's promotions committee. Alan played for two years on the tennis team and enjoyed coon hunting, and snow and water skiing. Alan was also an active participant in Young Life, and an amateur film-maker.

Debby Morris and Skippy Merrill were chosen as the senior favorites for 1971-72, with Tera Mansker and Mike Reed as the finalists.

Debby, a cheerleader this year, was a two year member of Spirit of the Hill and class favorite her junior year. Allied Youth and Young Life were among her extra curricular activities.

Skippy, an athletics enthusiast, was active in football and track. He also scuba dives and is involved in karate training.

Tera, a three year Yellow Jacket staffer and student councilman was a one year member of Spirit of the Hill. Serving as secretary of American Field Service, she was also a three year member of National Honor Society. Ballet, swimming, and Young Life take up Tera's spare time.

Mike, an honoree of the National Honor Society, was a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship program. Also including Young Life in his activities, Mike was a one year member of the baseball team and enjoys bicycle riding.

Superior Academic Performance Cited

Honored by receiving the Daughters of the American Revolution award, Kathe Ambrose was chosen on the basis of leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism. A member of the National Honor Society and recipient of a National Merit letter of Commendation, Kathe served as co-editor of the Yellow Jacket and class club editor of the Jacket Journal.

Altrusa awardee in her junior year, Holly Livingston received this honor based on career interest, leadership, scholarship, and school service. A group of Heights teachers voted on the junior girl to receive the token charm and certificate, given by the Altrusa Club. Holly was a member of National Honor Society for three years and a co-editor of one of the most widely read government newspapers published at A.H.H.S., THE AARDVARK MONTHLY.

National Merit Scholarship Finalists included four Arlington Heights 1972 seniors.

Chuck Lievrouw was voted to Who's Who Among American High School Students. He was a member of NHS three years and was on the Jacket Journal two years, also receiving membership in Quill and Scroll. Founder of an Explorer Post, the Eagle Scout participated in a Goodfellow distribution of Christmas gifts.

Mike Walker was a Debate Club and AHHS band member two years. He was also in the National Honor Society and on the honor roll three years. Scientific interest led to Mike taking second place in the Fort-Worth Regional Science Fair in 1970.

Football, basketball, and baseball manager Elbert Kennedy did radio broadcasts and newspaper stories for Heights games and worked on the Jacket Journal and Yellow Jacket sports staffs. As a senior, "Bud" served as Student Council Coordinations Committee chairman, and was a member of Spirit of the Hill.

Panasonic Award semifinalist Mike Reed was a member of the National Honor Society and on the honor roll three years. He was a lab assistant to biology teacher Mrs. Lucy Belt. Mike was elected as vice-president of the senior class and became a senior favorite finalist.

Three year cheerleader Beckie Ray was honored by the student body many times, as she was elected sophomore favorite, Howdy Queen, and Miss AHHS. She was chosen by the football team as their queen and served on the Student Council three years.

Verne Garrison, Yellow Jacket co-editor, was a two year Jacket Journal staffer and literary editor of the Impressions magazine. A member of Spirit of the Hill and very active in Young Life, he was selected as host for American Field Service exchange student Carlos Bethencourt.

President of Spirit of the Hill, Donna Self was a member of the club two years. She served as Student Council and Senior Class secretary, and was also on the Communications Committee two years.

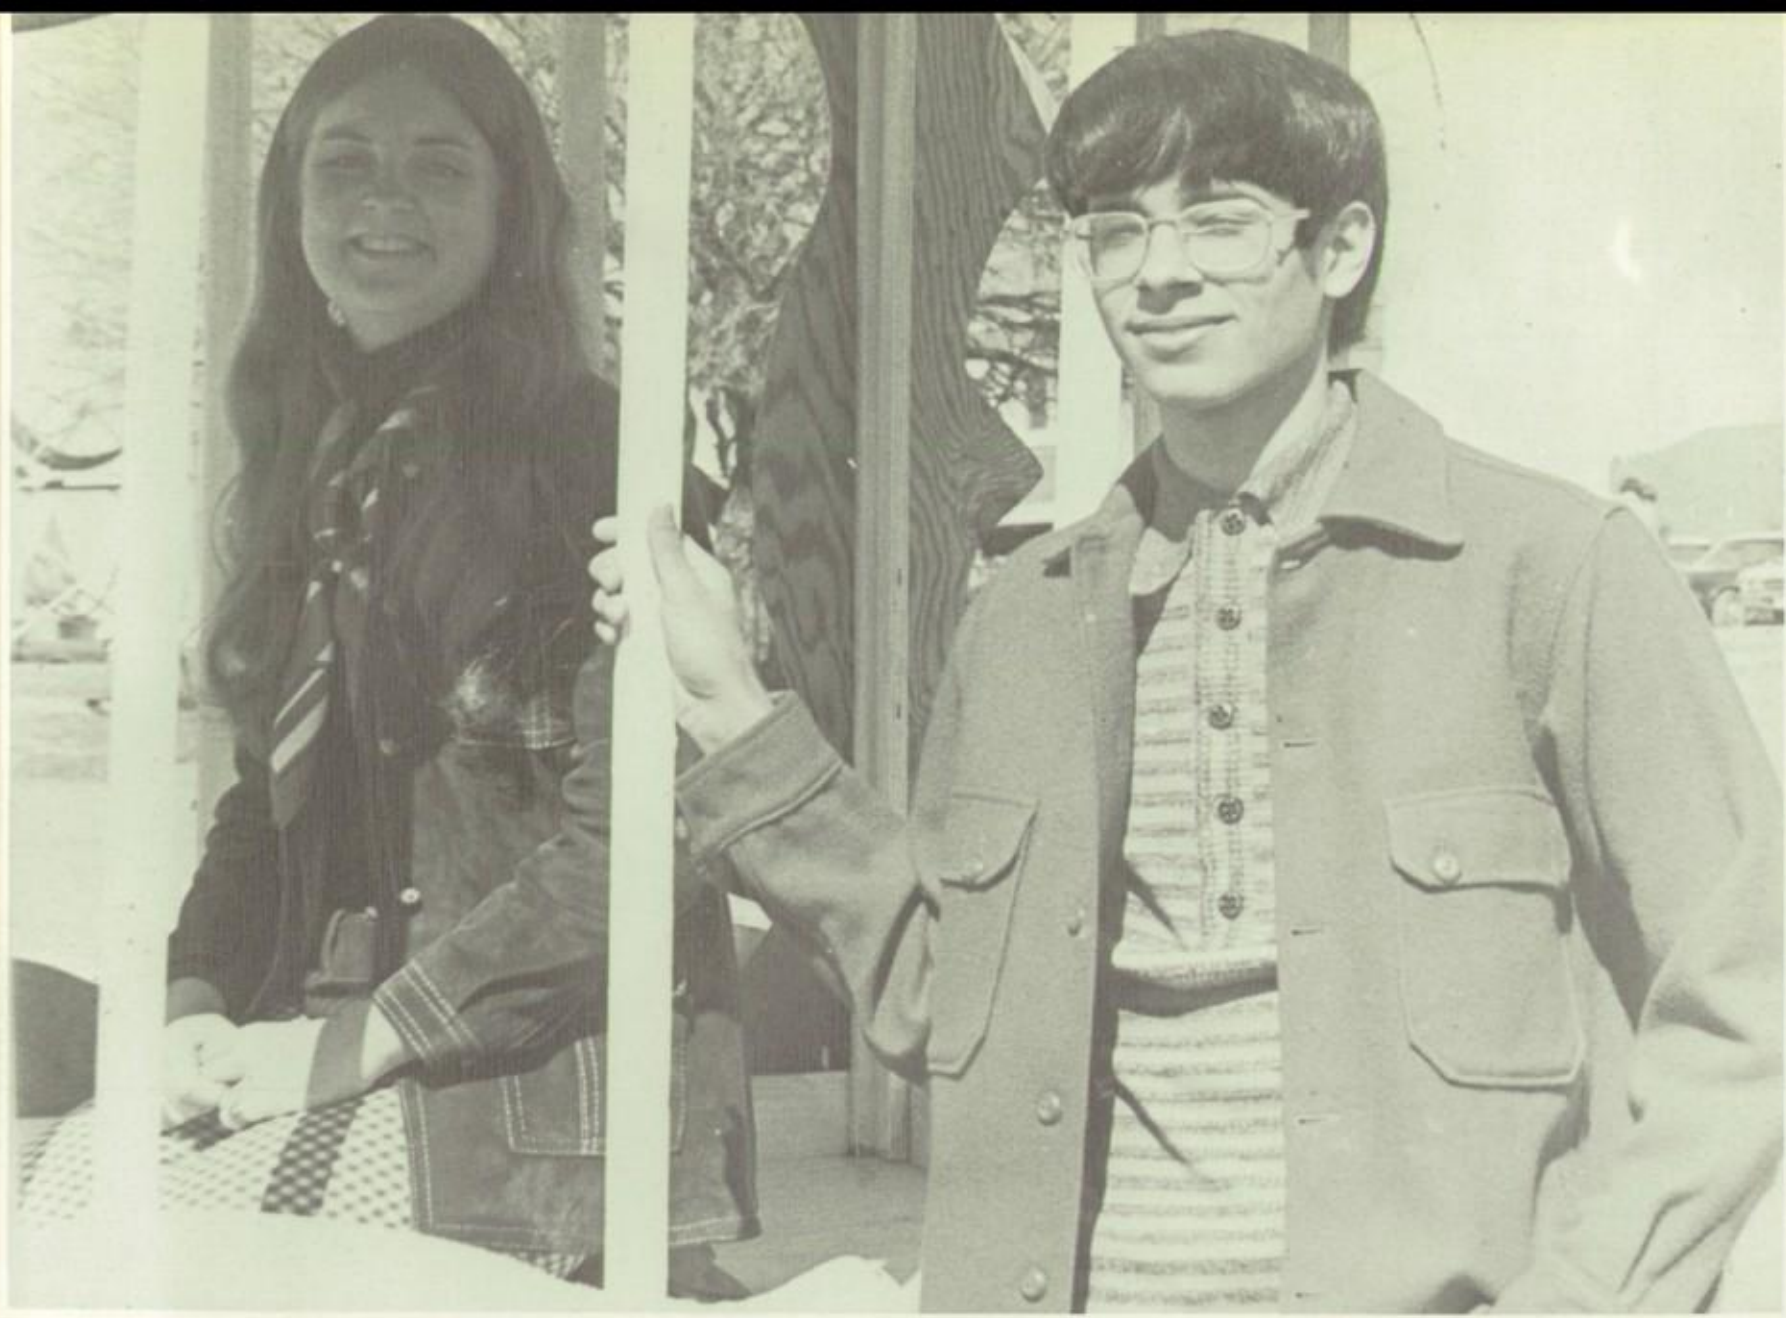

Karen Edwards, a National Honor Society member for three years, was selected Student Council representative for her homeroom. She served as co-editor of the senior section of the '72 Yellow Jacket.

Taking an active role in the publications departments, Tav Holmes worked as copy editor on both the Yellow Jacket and Impressions staffs and served as feature editor for the Jacket Journal. She was also chosen as a member of the National Honor Society, served on the Student Council Executive Board and the Senior Steering Committee, and worked with Young Life.

Jose Nunez, an Eagle Scout and treasurer for Explorer Post 425, is very interested in outdoor activities such as camping, climbing, and aquatics. He is involved in church activities and enjoys playing the guitar.

Spring Plays Highlight Dramatics Class

"The Miracle Worker" and "The Glass Menagerie" were presented by drama classes under the direction of Mrs. Rosemary Burton.

"The Miracle Worker" was produced in February. David Washburn was narrator and Helen Keller was played by Jan Birdwell and Marion Capers. Ann Sullivan was portrayed by Paula Sheppard and Jeannine Phillips. Peggy Price and Helen Brown played Mrs. Keller and the part of Jimmy was performed by Bob Rominger. Helen McGlynn and Pat Copenhaver were cast in the role of Aunt Ev.

The only singly cast parts were Theron Hale as Mr. Keller and Roosevelt Sutton as Mr. Aganes.

"The Glass Menagerie" was performed in mid-March. Jac Robertson was cast in the role of Tom, with Liz McGlohen playing his mother, Amanda. Rick Cooper was Jim, the gentleman caller.

The reflecting double casts for "The Miracle Worker" are, left: Peggy Price, Bob Rominger, Paula Sheppard, and Jan Birdwell; right: Ricky Phillips, Amy Brown, Jeannine Phillips, and Marian Capers.

Portraying Amanda and Tom in "The Glass Menagerie" are Liz McGlohen and Jac Robertson.

Como Exes Assume New Roles on Hill

Several new students were added to Heights' senior class this year with the closing of Como Senior High School. Involved in student government and sports activities, these transfer students proved an asset to the school.

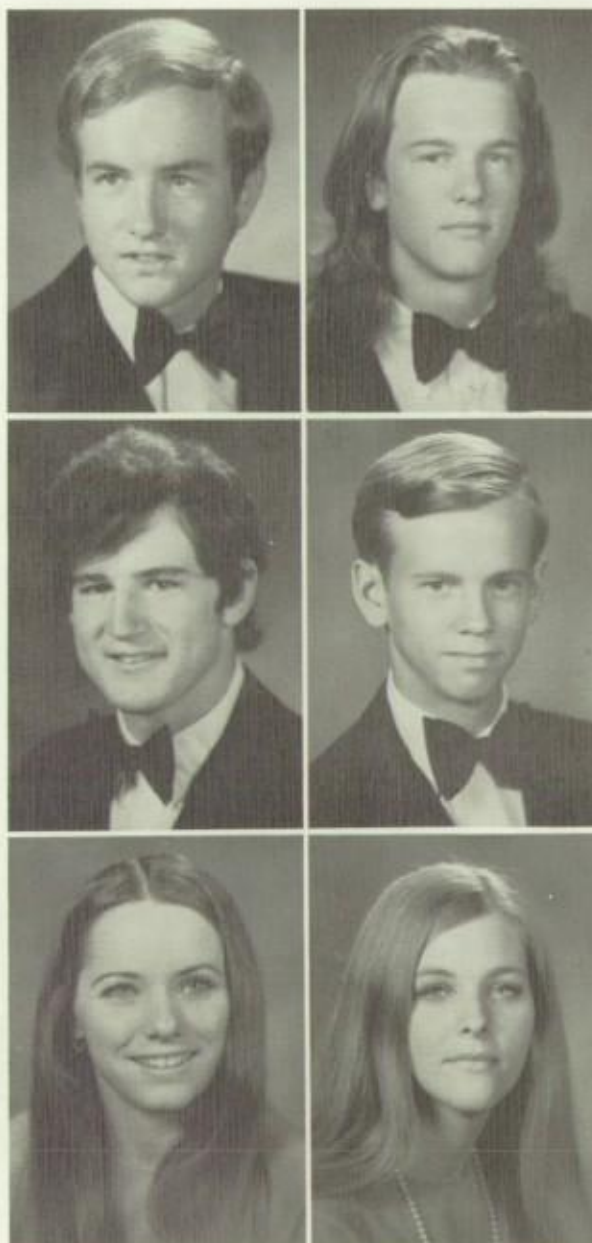

Special elections were held for them early in the year for places on the Student Council, Spirit of the Hill and cheerleading squad. Spirit received a big boost from their support and participation. Art Keith Williams, senior, was one of the new cheerleaders and Marilyn Beasley, also a senior, was a member of the '72 Homecoming Court. Leonard Thompson and Kenneth "Snowball" Jones added their support to pep rallies by leading the student body in new cheers.

DE Trades Classroom for Employment

Preparation for future in the business and social worlds, and the opportunity to learn of the obligations one has to a community were the main objectives of Distributive Education Clubs of America.

Employed in different areas of service, the participating students were required to maintain a part time job for an entire school year in a vocation associated with DE.

A routine day included a half day of regular classes, along with a DE class period at school, taught by Mrs. Jacqueline Frazer, and a few hours at various jobs.

Requirements for admission into the DE program included an "A" average in citizenship, no grade below "C", and placement as a junior or senior.

Versatility Characterizes Government

Senior government classes worked under contract this year. Students visited meetings of the City Council, the School Board, and the City Planning Commission along with trips to court and government meetings.

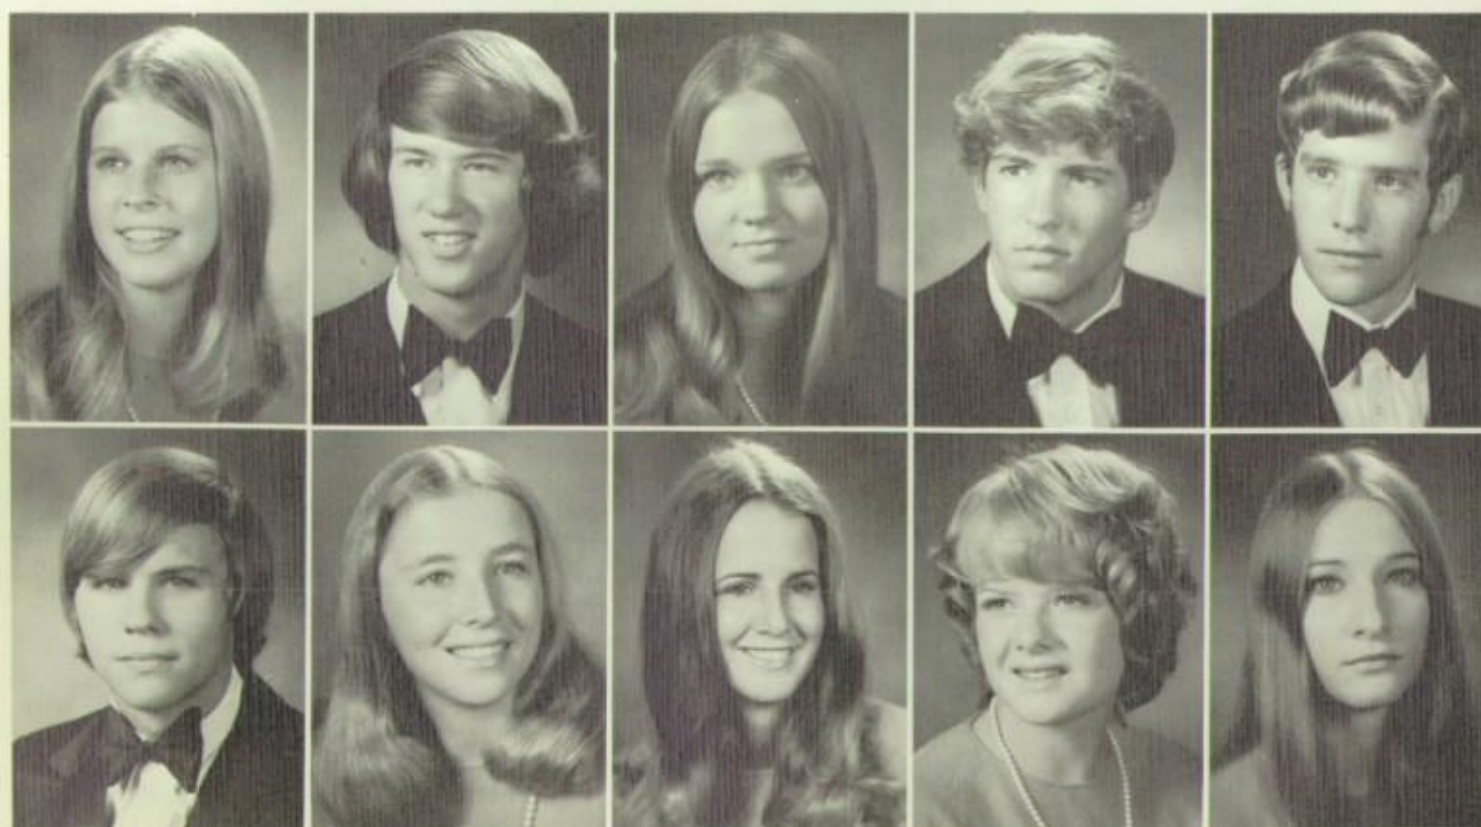

Panel discussions were held covering such topics as pollution and over population. Letters to senators, representatives, and/or newspaper editors were also part of the contract requirements.

The classes of Mrs. Betty Quimby and Mrs. Jean Mitchell took a field trip to the Civil Courts Building to learn the basics of court proceedings.

Government II classes concentrated on state level politics. During the winter, students had five guest speakers and took a tour of the new City Hall. In the spring, a mock election was held.

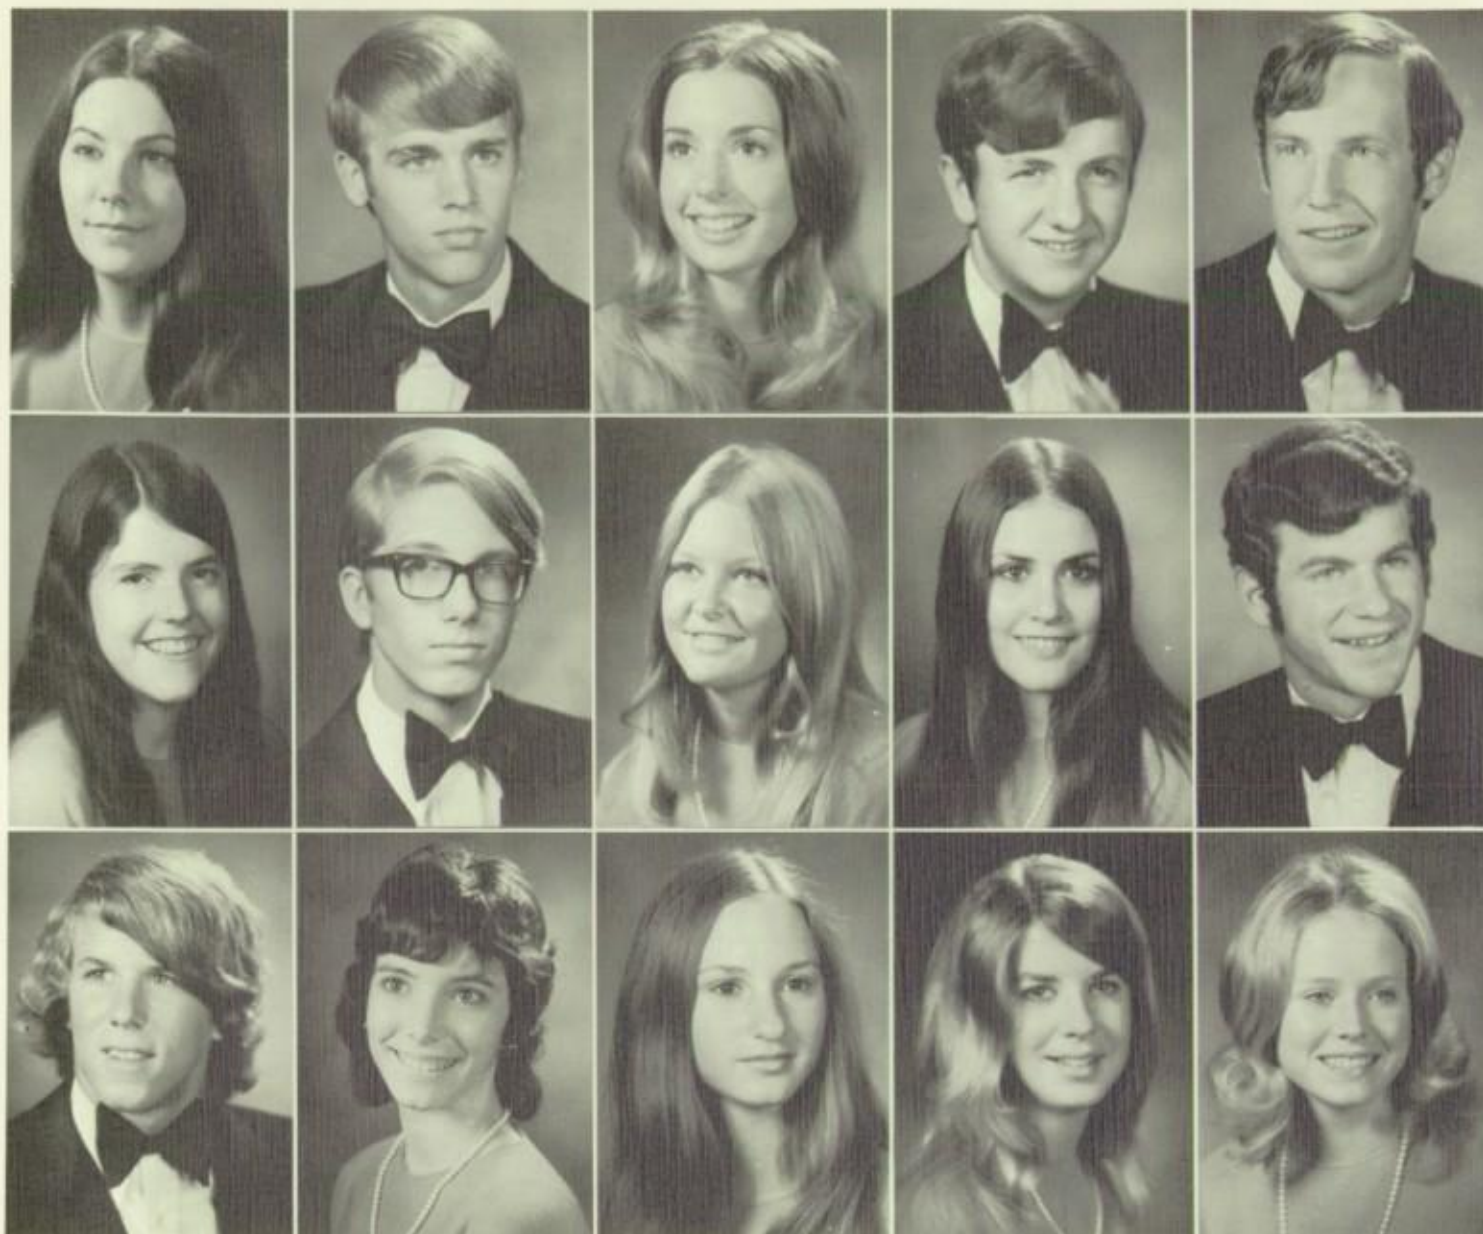

In a splurge of sensationalism, seniors Donna Self, Karen King, Kathy Harrell, Kathy Shelton draw attention to their government debate by dressing according to styles from decades past.

Exchange Student Gets Texas Flair

Carlos Bethencourt, AFS exchange student, came from Caracas, Venezuela to attend Heights as a senior this year. He lived at the home of his American brother, Verne Garrison.

Carlos was elected senior Howdy King and was an honorary Spirit of the Hill member. He served temporarily as Band manager and was also on the Heights swim team.

Education here differed mainly in the method of subject selection, and upon returning home, Carlos plans to attend a public university and be a chemical engineer.

Carlos (Charlie) Bethencourt displays the smile that brought him many friends.

SUTH Strives to Change Spirit Image

For the first time in the history of Arlington Heights, the senior boys organized their own club, Spirit Under The Hill, or SUTH.

Kenneth Horn, founding father and president, and Rusty Cutchin, vice-president, started the club of about 30 members in October. With the purpose of boosting the spirit of the school, they added to pep rallies and games by their vocal and moral support.

SUTH was open to all senior boys for the cost of a Spirit Under The Hill shirt, $3.50. Mike Berry and Rusty Cutchin designed and had the shirts made specially for the club, which required that the boys wear them to all sports activities, making them easily recognized.

Later in the year, the group expanded to include girls and underclassmen.

Members of SUTH display Senior enthusiasm at the last football pep rally of their AHHS days.

"Please Mrs. Tottenham, please, please kick me off the annual staff!" pleads Jerry Baird.

During morning passing period, several students take the opportunity to delight in the brisk January weather as they walk on the rare Texas snow.

EDITORS' NOTE

Sincerest thanks are extended to the yearbook staff and its sponsor, Mrs. Sylvia Tottenham, for their support and sacrifice in putting out this publication. In addition, thanks go to Mrs. Betty Quimby and Mrs. Gene Thompson for their helpful advice; special appreciation is to be extended to Mr. John Ramsey, whose help proved invaluable. Gratitude goes also to Hempel Photography and Provine Studios, as well as the staff photographers. Above all, we thank our parents for their patience and understanding.

"Who says that you have to rope goats to enjoy the finer things in life?" snuffs an enlightened Aaron Aardvark.

Time
flows on.
People,
places
change
in the never-ending swing
of the days.
But
changes
don't erase the past . . .
they add to it.
The memories
left in you and
the memories
stored at Heights
will always be there.

Added to, perhaps . . .

but not gone.
